Transmedial Perspectives on Humour and Translation Loukia Kostopoulou, Vasiliki Misiou, 2023-12-22 This innovative collection spotlights the role of media crossovers in humour translation and how the latter is conveyed through new means of communication The volume offers an in depth exploration of the entanglements of film theatre literature TV the Internet etc within the framework of transmediality and their influence on the practice of translating humour Chapters focus on the complex web of interrelationships shaped by and shaping the processes of transformation and adaptation that take place across media and across languages and cultures Situating translation practices and innovations within an interdisciplinary context the volume underscores the hybrid nature and complex semiotics of humour and the plurality of possibilities for new insights that contemporary approaches offer driven by technological advancements in the industry The book will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of Translation Studies Humour Studies Audiovisual Translation Media Studies and Adaptation Studies

The Nuclear Deception Servando Gonzalez, 2002 The event known as the Cuban missile crisis the greatest of all Cold War crises is a milestone in the history of the Cold War According to the author the main questions of the situation have eluded satisfactory answers because analysts have neglected the true Cuban role in the event particularly the Russo Cuban relations prior to the crisis

Encyclopaedia Comédica Benjamin Leuteritz, 2020 What if humour is more of a natural discipline rather than a humanistic science In his book Encyclopaedia Comédica A serious journey to funny realms the author Benjamin Leuteritz tries to get to the bottom of the smallest particles of humour and to find out what makes us laugh He takes the reader on a journey where no eye remains dry

The Hybrid Face Massimo Leone, 2023-12-12 This original and interdisciplinary volume explores the contemporary semiotic dimensions of the face from both scientific and sociocultural perspectives putting forward several traditions aspects and signs of the human utopia of creating a hybrid face The book semiotically delves into the multifaceted realm of the digital face exploring its biological and social functions the concept of masks the impact of COVID 19 AI systems digital portraiture symbolic faces in films viral communication alien depictions personhood in video games online intimacy and digital memorials The human face is increasingly living a life that is not only that of the biological body but also that of its digital avatar spread through a myriad of new channels and transformable through filters post productions digital cosmetics all the way to the creation of deepfakes The digital face expresses new and largely unknown meanings which this book explores and analyzes through an interdisciplinary but systematic approach The volume will interest researchers scholars and advanced students who are interested in digital humanities communication studies semiotics visual studies visual anthropology cultural studies and broadly speaking innovative approaches about the meaning of the face in present day digital societies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
