Promoting Entrepreneurship to Reduce Graduate Unemployment Katono, Isaac Wasswa, 2022-04-01 Based on recognition evaluation and exploitation of opportunities entrepreneurship is a process that stimulates economic growth provides us with new products and services and serves as a solution to low unemployment rates Hence many governments encourage their citizens to embrace entrepreneurship as a strategy to mitigate unemployment particularly youth and graduate unemployment While studies show that entrepreneurship education has yielded positive results in Western countries in other parts of the world it seems that most students still prefer to seek paid employment in their career of choice Promoting Entrepreneurship to Reduce Graduate Unemployment seeks to expand understanding of the barriers that face graduates in becoming entrepreneurs in various countries examining the role of educational institutions in promoting graduate entrepreneurship and evaluating governments as well as other schemes that promote graduate entrepreneurship Although it will not be a panacea for all the obstacles that impede graduate entrepreneurship it is hoped that this book will illuminate the entrepreneurship career path serve as a platform for further diagnosis for reducing graduate unemployment and highlight areas in need of further research Covering topics such as entrepreneurial self efficacy career choice and educated unemployment it serves as a dynamic resource for educators educational administration and faculty government institutions graduate students student organizations professionals researchers and academicians China and East Africa Chapurukha M. Kusimba, Tiequan Zhu, Purity Wakabari Kiura, 2019-12-02 China and East Africa Ancient Ties and Contemporary Flows marks the culmination of a new round of archaeological and historical research on the relations between China and Africa from the origins to the present Africa and Asia have always been in constant contact through land and seas The contributors to this volume debate and present the results of their research on the very complex and intricate networks of connections that crisscrossed the Indian Ocean and surrounding lands linking Africa to East Asia A growing number of speakers of Austronesian languages returned to Africa reaching Madagascar in the early centuries of the Common Era The diffusion of domesticated plants like bananas from New Guinea to South Asia and Africa where phytoliths are dated to the mid fourth millennium in Uganda and mid first millennium BCE in southern Cameroon provide additional evidence on early interactions between Africa and Asia Africa and Asia have always been in constant contact through land and seas Edited by Chapurukha Kusimba Tiequan Zhu and Purity Wakabari Kiura this collection explores different facets of the interaction between China and Africa from their earliest manifestations to the present and with an eye to the future

Making Medicines in Africa Maureen Mackintosh, Geoffrey Banda, Watu Wamae, Paula Tibandebage, 2016-02-03 This book is open access under a CC BY license The importance of the pharmaceutical industry in Sub Saharan Africa its claim to policy priority is rooted in the vast unmet health needs of the sub continent Making Medicines in Africa is a collective endeavour by a group of contributors with a strong African and more broadly Southern presence to find ways to link technological development investment and industrial growth in pharmaceuticals to improve access to essential good quality medicines as part of moving towards universal access to competent health care in Africa The authors aim to shift the emphasis in international debate and initiatives towards sustained Africa based and African led initiatives to tackle this huge challenge Without the technological industrial intellectual organisational and research related capabilities associated with competent pharmaceutical production and without policies that pull the industrial sectors towards serving local health needs the African sub continent cannot generate the resources to tackle its populations needs and demands Research for this book has been selected as one of the 20 best examples of the impact of UK research on development See <http://www.ukcds.org.uk> the global impact of uk research for further details Guide to Mount Kenya and Kilimanjaro Iain Allan, John Mitchell, 1971
