Republics of Knowledge Nicola Miller, 2025-02-18 Republics of Knowledge tells the story of how the circulation of knowledge shaped the formation of nation states in Latin America and particularly in Argentina Peru and Chile during the century after Iberian rule was defeated in the 1820s Most immediately the author has sought to provide a cross disciplinary approach to the history of knowledge combining the methods of global intellectual history with a new way of thinking about nations as experienced and enacted as well as how they are imagined and in so doing offer a new interpretation of the history of independent Latin America to illustrate its wider significance in the making of the modern world By bringing these lines of inquiry together within a transnational framework Nicola Miller shows how evidence from the pioneering nations of Latin America can invite historians to rethink many of their general theories about how knowledge travels and how a sense of nationhood is created The book is designed to stimulate debate about the significance of knowledge not only in Latin America but in all modern societies As Miller explains Latin America is usually regarded as an exception to general theories notably of colonialism nationalism and liberalism and yet it was in that part of the world not in Europe that the Age of Revolution brought the founding of a second wave of modern republics and it was in Latin America that pioneering attempts were made to apply liberal principles in societies with inherited caste divisions and corporate institutions. It was there that some of the richest debates about the vexed relationship between collective identities and individualism took place.

Lessons from History Charlotte Antoinette Crabtree, 1992. This volume seeks to answer the question: What history should schools teach? It makes a case for why the teaching of history is vital and features an interpretation of both U.S. and world history. The chapter on U.S. history is organized into 14 units that correspond to major historical eras: 1. Three Worlds Meet 1450-1600, 2. The Colonial Era 1600-1754, 3. The Revolutionary Era 1754-1783, 4. Nation Building 1783-1815, 5. The Expanding Nation: The North 1815-1850, 6. The Expanding Nation: The Westward Movement 1815-1850, 7. The Civil War and Reconstruction 1850-1877, 8. The Second Industrial Revolution 1865-1900, 9. The Progressive Era 1900-1914, 10. The Emergence of the United States as a World Power and World War I 1890-1920, 11. The 1920s: A Decade of Prosperity and Problems, 12. The Depression and the New Deal 1929-1941, 13. World War II and the Cold War 1939-1961, and 14. The Recent United States 1961-Present. The materials in each unit are presented under three major topic headings: The first, Significance and Teaching Goals, argues the importance of the subject at hand and some of the most worthwhile goals to be sought in teaching it. The second heading, Major Topics, briefly outlines those topics and sub-topics around which the larger subject may be effectively organized. Finally, under the third heading, Major Topics and Their Development: Essential Understandings and Related Teacher Background, there appears a detailed and interpretive narrative which is meant to serve as background to help teachers in framing their own interpretation and presentation. The units on world history are organized into the same format. They are: 1. The Beginnings of Civilization, 2. The Classical Civilizations of the Mediterranean World: India and China ca. 1000 B.C.-600 A.D., 3. The Expansion of Agrarian Civilizations ca. 600-1450 A.D., 4.
