

A high-angle, wide shot of a post-apocalyptic city. A winding river flows through a dense, green forest that has reclaimed the urban landscape. Several tall, modern skyscrapers are visible, their upper floors and spires partially obscured by thick vines and foliage. The scene is captured in a cinematic style with soft, natural lighting. In the foreground on the left, a tree branch with green leaves hangs down, framing the view. The title 'LIFE AFTER PEOPLE' is written in large, bold, white, sans-serif capital letters across the lower half of the image. Below it, the words 'THE SERIES' are written in a smaller, similar font, flanked by two horizontal white bars.

Becoming Divine M. David Litwa,2013-10-30 Some have called it the essence of sin others the depth of salvation Regardless of one s evaluation of it however deification throughout Western history has been a part of human aspiration From the ancient pharaohs to modern transhumanists people have envisioned their own divinity These visionaries include not only history s greatest megalomaniacs but also mystics sages apostles prophets magicians bishops philosophers atheists and monks Some aimed for independent deity others realized their eternal union with God Some anticipated godhood in heaven others walked as gods on earth Some accepted divinity by grace others achieved it by their own will to power There is no single form of deification indeed deification is as manifold as the human conception of God but the many types are united by a set of interlocking themes achieving immortality wielding superhuman power being filled with supernatural knowledge or love and through these means transcending normal human or at least earthly nature
