An East Asian Renaissance Indermit Singh Gill,Homi J. Kharas,Deepak Bhattasali,2007 An East Asian Renaissance by a World Bank team led by Chief Economist for East Asia Pacific Dr Homi Kharas and Economic Adviser Dr Indermit Gill is the first comprehensive analysis of the new forces and challenges at play in the region since the Bank s seminal report of 1993 The East Asian Miracle The report argues that regional flows of goods finance and technology are helping even smaller East Asian countries reap the benefits of economies of scale and that this regional integration must be encouraged But it also points out that these measures have to be supported by actions at the domestic level to ease the stresses and strains that rapid economic growth leaves in its wake East Asia must now turn to the urgent domestic challenges of inequality social cohesion corruption and environmental degradation arising from its economic success Preventing Violent Conflict in Africa Y. Mine, F. Stewart, S. Fukuda-Parr, T. Mkandawire, 2013-10-17 Horizontal inequalities are root causes of violent conflict in Africa Yet people take actions not because of statistical data on inequalities of which they might not be aware but because of injustices they perceive This volume analyses the results of original surveys with over 3 000 respondents in African cities and towns exposing clear discrepancies between objective inequalities and people's subjective perceptions The contributors examine experiences in country pairs and probe into the reasons why neighbouring countries sharing common historical traits sometimes took contrasting pathways of peace and violent conflict Combining quantitative analysis and qualitative anatomy of historical experiences of conflict and reconciliation in Rwanda Burundi Ghana Cote d'Ivoire South Africa Zimbabwe Uganda Tanzania Kenya and Nigeria the study brings forward a set of policy recommendations for development practitioners This work further addresses the issue of institutional choice and reveals how sustainable power sharing and decentralisation contribute to political stability in Africa

Human Development Report 2007/2008 United Nations Development Programme,2007-11-15 Human development is about putting people at the center of development It is about people realizing their potential increasing choice and enjoying the freedom to lead the lives they value Created in 1990 the Human Development Report has explored themes including gender equity democracy human rights globalization cultural liberty and water scarcity The past years have witnessed the emergence of a growing consensus on climate change Governments across the world have seen the warning signs The science linking global warming to human activity is unequivocal The economic case for action is compelling the costs of inaction will heavily outweigh the costs of action Yet the politics lags behind the science and the economics Collectively the world s governments are failing to act with the urgency demanded by the scale of the threat The window of opportunity for avoiding dangerous climate change is closing fast This year s Human Development Report explains why we have less than a decade to change course and start living within our global carbon budget It explains how climate change will create long run low human development traps pushing vulnerable people into a downward spiral of deprivation Because climate change is a global problem with global causes and effects it demands a global response with countries acting on the basis of their historic responsibility and capabilities Arab Human Development Report 2009 United Nations Development Programme. Regional Bureau for Arab States,2009 The Arab Human Development Report aims at building human development in the Arab world Gender inequality is generally recognized as one of the main obstacles to development in the Arab Region This volume of the report focuses on the history and contemporary dynamics of Arab women s economic political and social empowerment It details the processes in which gender impacts on Arab development while suggesting means of overcoming some of the challenges and building more equitable societies The Asia-Pacific Human Development Report ,2010 Addressing the Impact of the Phasing Out of Textiles and Clothing Quotas in Lao PDR.: Diversification and value addition in Lao PDR : case studies on tourism, handicraft and food processing sectors ,2007 Nasarawa Journal of Political Science ,2011-07 Islamic Economic Studies ,2010

Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. National Human Development Report 2006 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
