Letters of Travel (1892-1913) - Rudyard Kipling Rudyard Kipling, 2010-01-01 A passage from the book After the gloom of gray Atlantic weather our ship came to America in a flood of winter sunshine that made unaccustomed eyelids blink and the New Yorker who is nothing if not modest said This isn't a sample of our really fine days Wait until such and such times come or go to such and such a quarter of the city We were content and more than content to drift aimlessly up and down the brilliant streets wondering a little why the finest light should be wasted on the worst pavements in the world to walk round and round Madison Square because that was full of beautifully dressed babies playing counting out games or to gaze reverently at the broad shouldered pug nosed Irish New York policemen Wherever we went there was the sun lavish and unstinted working nine hours a day with the colour and the clean cut lines of perspective that he makes That any one should dare to call this climate muggy yea even subtropical was a shock There came such a man and he said Go north if you want weather weather that is weather Go to New England So New York passed away upon a sunny afternoon with her roar and rattle her complex smells her triply over heated rooms and much too energetic inhabitants while the train went north to the lands where the snow lay It came in one sweep almost it seemed in one turn of the wheels covering the winter killed grass and turning the frozen ponds that looked so white under the shadow of lean trees into pools of ink
