Making Art: Form and Meaning Terry Barrett, Professor, 2010-01-15 This comprehensive introduction to art and design explores making artifacts as a process of making meaning Making Art Form and Meaning offers a framework for understanding how all the aspects of an artwork subject matter medium form process and contexts interact The text s wide array of examples and its emphasis on late modernism and postmodern art give students a thorough look at the expressive possibilities of traditional design elements and principles and contemporary practices including the use of computer based time based and lens based media With artist quotes clearly defined key terms and a chapter dedicated to studio critiques Making Art allows students to join the conversation of contemporary art and gives them a jump start in thinking and talking about their work using the language and concepts of today s art world Looseleaf for Making Art: Form and Meaning Terry Barrett, Professor, 2011-04-04 Studyguide for Making Art Cram101 Textbook Reviews, 2013-05 Never HIGHLIGHT a Book Again Includes all testable terms concepts persons places and events Cram101 Just the FACTS101 studyguides gives all of the outlines highlights and quizzes for your textbook with optional online comprehensive practice tests Only Cram101 is Textbook Specific Accompanies 9780872893795 This item is printed on demand Studyguide for Making Art Terry Barrett, Cram101 Textbook Reviews, 2012-09 Never HIGHLIGHT a Book Again Virtually all of the testable terms concepts persons places and events from the textbook are included Cram101 Just the FACTS101 studyguides give all of the outlines highlights notes and quizzes for your textbook with optional online comprehensive practice tests Only Cram101 is Textbook Specific Accompanys 9780072521788 Proceedings of the International Symposium on Research of Arts, Design and Humanities \(ISRADH 2014\) Oskar Hasdinor Hassan, Shahrizan Zainal Abidin, Rusmadiyah Anwar, Muhamad Fairus Kamaruzaman, 2015-09-22 This book examines the interaction between art design technology and the social sciences It features 56 papers that were presented at the International Symposium on Research of Arts Design and Humanities ISRADH 2014 held at Sutera Harbour Resort Kota Kinabalu Malaysia Complete with helpful diagrams and tables the papers cover such topics as artificial reef development racial discourse in the social media stoneware as a replacement material for modern ventilation walls and factors contributing to internet abuse in the workplace Overall the coverage focuses on global design trends and demands with an emphasis on people business and technology Inside readers will find information on art and science in industrial applications art management and entrepreneurship cognitive psychological and behavioral science design technology and sustainable development humanities and social applications in quality of life social implications of technology and visual communication and technologies Taking a multi disciplinary approach the book features insightful discussions among academicians and industrial practitioners on the evolution of design that will appeal to researchers designers and students The Ground Zero of the Arts: Rules, Processes, Forms Davide Dal Sasso, 2021-10-05 This book proposes to investigate the arts from the inside namely to consider first and foremost what artists do to create their works in order to proceed fruitfully in the direction of their evaluation and explanation To this end it develops a philosophical inquiry that examines the ground zero of the arts their common foundations namely the rules for artistic creation the processes that involve artists in their activities the forms that they can or cannot achieve This proposal and its outline for a rule based ontology of the arts addresses four themes the relationship between human nature and artistic practices the features of art making the conception of artworks as structures and the social nature of the arts

Mental Health, Spirituality, and Religion in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, 2014-07-28 This volume continues the critical exploration of fundamental issues in the medieval and early modern world here concerning mental health spirituality melancholy mystical visions medicine and well being The contributors who originally had presented their research at a symposium at The University of Arizona in May 2013 explore a wide range of approaches and materials pertinent to these issues taking us from the early Middle Ages to the eighteenth century capping the volume with some reflections on the relevance of religion today Lapidary sciences matter here as much as medical psychological research combined with literary and art historical approaches The premodern understanding of mental health is not taken as a miraculous panacea for modern problems but the contributors suggest that medieval and early modern writers scientists and artists commanded a considerable amount of arcane sometimes curious and speculative knowledge that promises to be of value and relevance even for us today once again Modern palliative medicine finds for instance intriguing parallels in medieval word magic and the mystical perspectives encapsulated highly productive alternative perceptions of the macrocosm and microcosm that promise to be insightful and important also for the post modern world

Looking at Art Philosophically Tom Supensky, 2012-08-31 The purpose of this book is to present to the reader a series of philosophical ideas that assist in understanding ones position in the world of art and some thinking on art and creativity intended to awaken the aesthetic aspects of making art There is no intention to review historical philosophical concepts nor is there any specific inclusion of contemporary theories on art philosophy What is included are those philosophies important to the developing artist that are more commonplace in nature often neglected in art education yet vitally necessary to the true artist Finally this book is intended to stimulate the reader into asking such questions as who am I why art and what is art It is hopeful that the reader finds an aesthetic foundation a personal and honest place in the world of art

Observational Filmmaking for Education Nigel Meager, 2019-02-21 This book places observational filmmaking in the context of the rapidly developing landscape of creativity and arts based research in education The author uses observational filmmaking as a lens to address debates surrounding video based and arts based research Utilising the work of Dewey and Deleuze as the theoretical underpinnings of the volume this is combined with numerous practical examples of observational filmmaking in schools The author argues that observational video camera and editing techniques combine careful observation with rigorous visual analysis they place sensory affectual and aesthetic qualities in experience centre stage While observational filmmaking in itself has enormous potential as a methodology for education research it may also become a fulcrum for children s learning Children record their experiences in the world around them as they look carefully with a video camera This pioneering yet practical book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of creativity learning and education research methods as well as constituting a useful guide for teachers arts practitioners and education policy makers Creating Meaning Through Literature and the Arts Claudia E.
