Electronic Word of Mouth as a Promotional Technique Shu-Chuan Chu, Juran Kim, Charles R. Taylor, 2020-04-17 Recent years have seen digital advertising grow to the point where it will soon overtake television as the no 1 advertising medium In the online environment consumers interact and share their thoughts on brands and their experiences using them These electronic word of mouth eWOM communications have become a very important to the success of products In today s cluttered environment it is especially important to study how the practice of eWOM advertising operates and how marketers can influence eWOM in social media and other online sites This volume starts with a chapter on the current state of knowledge on eWOM and then turns its attention to current research articles on a variety of eWOM formats These include the posting of selfies on social media the influence of review types on consumer perception and purchase intention the effects of preannouncement messages and how user generated content can be used to induce effectiveness of eWOM on social media The relationship of eWOM to brand building is emphasized in several of the chapters This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Advertising

Brand Competition and Consumer Preference of the Chinese Home Appliance Markets (1) MIC Research Team, 2016-08-01 Using big data analytics this research covers top Chinese home appliance brands including LCD TV refrigerator washing machine and air conditioner with following analysis dimensions brand ranking by the number of items available on online stores ranking by sales number of times online users mention about a particular brand brand preferences factors affecting purchase as well as online shoppers comments and user analysis All those dimensions help build a massive social media database which can more accurately reflect consumer needs in China

Marketing Issues in Transitional Economies Rajeev Batra, 1999-08-31 As the markets in transitional economies open and grow major challenges and opportunities arise for multinational firms entering these markets local firms facing these new competitors and policymakers seeking to increase the ability of all firms to compete fairly and efficiently Yet despite the important questions transition economies pose for policymakers and companies seeking to enter and compete in these new markets there has been a relative absence of systematic research on these concerns This book seeks to fill a gap in the existing literature by offering a pioneering and comprehensive examination of issues that have developed as markets in transitional economies become more deregulated and open The countries discussed include China the Czech Republic Hungary India Poland Romania Russia South Africa and South Korea The topics covered are divided into five main sections and the individual chapters are written by some of the world s leading academic experts on these issues Most of the authors draw from freshly collected data in new studies of consumers and or firms in transitional economies After an opening section which discusses the marketing issues and challenges multinational and local firms face in transitional economies the next three sections offer detailed treatments of changing consumer behavior measuring and improving the marketing orientation of firms and implementing and managing distribution channels The fifth and final section is devoted to firm strategies and tactics examined variously from the perspective of multinational firms entering these new markets from the viewpoint of existing local firms facing new competitive challenges from global entrants and from the perspective of local firms seeking to establish themselves in foreign markets where they have not previously competed Most of the individual chapters are revised versions of papers originally presented at a conference sponsored by the William Davidson Institute which focuses on research related to emerging and transitional economies and have not previously appeared in published form Thus the book is a unique collection of cutting edge scholarship on the various aspects of marketing in transitional economies It will prove valuable reading to academics policymakers and international business strategists
