The US Constitution

- What was the one thing of the Constitution representing every state?
- What does Article I, Section 8, Clause 8 of the Constitution state?
- Why is the 14th Amendment and equal protection clause found in the Constitution?

Three cards from the 'US Landmarks' deck are shown, each with a question on the left and a corresponding icon on the right. The cards are:
1. Question: "A location in a park is where the nation's first national park is located. What is the landmark?" Icon: A mountain with a sun/moon.
2. Question: "Which national park is described as 'America's most spectacular natural attraction'?" Icon: A mountain with a sun/moon.
3. Question: "Which national park is described as 'the most beautiful natural monument'?" Icon: A mountain with a sun/moon.

Three informational cards are displayed against a background of a world map. Each card has a light brown, parchment-like texture and a small icon of a mountain and a location pin in the top right corner. The first card asks, 'On whose Indigenous territories are you currently standing?'. The second card asks, 'Find the official website of an Indigenous Nation in your area'. The third card asks, 'What is a land in territory or knowledge?'. The cards are arranged vertically, with the first card at the top, the second in the middle, and the third at the bottom.
