Life Orientation Grade 1 November 2013:

My Colour-Coded Life Megan Jackson Hall, Participatory Visual Methodologies Claudia Mitchell, Naydene De Lange, Relebohile Moletsane, 2017-09-18 This book demonstrates how data from participatory visual methods can take people and communities beyond ideological engagement initiating new conversations and changing perspectives policy debates and policy development These methods include for example photo voice participatory video drawing mapping and digital storytelling Organised around a series of tools that have been used across health education environmental and sociological research Participatory Visual Methodologies illustrates how to maintain participant engagement in decision making navigate critical issues around ethics track policies and maximize the potential of longitudinal studies Tools discussed include Pedagogical screenings Digital dialogue devices Upcycling and speaking back interventions Participant led policy briefs An authoritative and accessible guide to how participatory visual methods and arts based methods can influence social change this book will help any postgraduate researcher looking to contribute to policy dialogue Handbook of Career Development Gideon Arulmani, Anuradha J. Bakshi, Frederick T. L. Leong, A. G. Watts, 2014-02-08 This book is focused on work occupation and career development themes that are fundamental to a wide range of human activities and relevant across all cultures Yet theorizing and model building about this most ubiquitous of human activities from international perspectives have not been vigorous An examination of the literature pertaining to career development counseling and guidance that has developed over the last fifty years reveals theorizing and model building have been largely dominated by Western epistemologies some of the largest workforces in the world are in the developing world Career guidance is rapidly emerging as a strongly felt need in these contexts If more relevant models are to be developed frameworks from other cultures and economies must be recognized as providing constructs that would offer a deeper understanding of career development This does not mean that existing ideas are to be discarded Instead an integrative approach that blends universal principles with particular needs could offer a framework for theorizing research and practice that has wider relevance The central objective of this handbook is to draw the wisdom and experiences of different cultures together to consider both universal and specific principles for career guidance and counseling that are socially and economically relevant to contemporary challenges and issues This book is focused on extending existing concepts to broader contexts as well as introducing new concepts relevant to the discipline of career guidance and counseling Queer Activism in South African Education Dennis A. Francis, 2022-08-19 Offering a vital critical contribution to debates on gender sexuality and schooling in South Africa this book highlights how South African educational practices discourses and structures normalize cisheteronormativity along with how these are resisted within schools and through contemporary forms of activism Not only does it add fresh insights to the existing research literature on gender sexualities and schooling it also underscores the valuable contributions of queer and transgender social movements which have made influential legislative teaching learning and support contributions to education Drawing on ethnographic research with queer and transgender activists teachers school managers parents and school attending youth the book provides everyday real life quotes and observations offering a deeply critical contribution to the debates on gender and sexualities education and activism Using spatial and affect theories it troubles the assumptions that frame this field of research to make a novel contribution to the national and international literature and research The book provides research based insights for thinking about and calls for informed action to challenging cisheteronormativity within and beyond schools

Human rights in diverse education contexts J.P.

Rossouw,Elda de Waal,Johan Beckmann,Johan Botha,Franciska Bothma,André du Plessis,Elize Küng,Nicholus Mollo,Ewelina Niemczyk,Louise Postma,Erika Serfontein,Marius Smit,Charl C. Wolhuter,2019-12-12 The focus of this publication is on answering the central research question How can Human Rights be advanced with regard to different kinds of diversities and in different educational settings The publication pays special attention to the advancement of human rights in a variety of education related contexts in keeping with human rights as a declared national priority for both society at large and the education system One strategic priority of the Faculty of Education is research based on market requirements and needs This book strives towards meeting this expectation by directly aiming at building human rights and social justice in the South African society public schools and higher education institutions Adjudication in the education context of the constitutional values of dignity equality and freedom focusses regularly on learners The book highlights the value of education for full fledged citizenship by delineating what schooling should entail to inspire learners towards both claiming equal freedoms and rights and taking accountability for the responsibilities attached to citizenship
