Teaching and Learning in the Early Years David Whitebread, Penny Coltman, 2015-02-20 This best selling text book provides a broad ranging and up to date review of thinking and best practice within nursery and infant education Written around the basic truth that an effective early years curriculum must start with the children their needs and their potential the contributors to this classic text acknowledge that learning must have a strong element of fun wonder and excitement Fully revised and updated in light of recent changes to the Early Years curriculum with brand new chapters on assessment communication writing creativity and diversity the contributors address a range of fundamental issues and principles including an analysis of research into how children learn discussions of issues such as classroom organisation curriculum management and assessment a detailed section on play and language chapters covering individual curriculum areas including new chapters on music and PSHE Each chapter combines a review of important principles with practical and inspiring classroom examples throughout It is essential reading for all Foundations Stage and KS1 trainee teachers their tutors and mentors and serving teachers working in the 3-7 age range who wish to reflect upon and develop their practice

From GCSEs to EBCs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education Committee, 2013 The Government's plans for replacing GCSEs with new English Baccalaureate Certificates in some subjects is trying to do too much too fast Introducing several fundamental changes at the same time and to a tight timetable will jeopardise the quality of the reforms and may threaten the stability of the wider exam system GCSEs need significant improvements in order to restore public confidence in the exam system but the Government still needs to make the case that the GCSE brand is so discredited that it is beyond repair MPs are also concerned about the impact of the changes on subjects outside the English Baccalaureate where students will be taking GCSEs for some time to come according to the Government's plans The report also questions how well the Government's proposals will serve lower attaining pupils who are often the most disadvantaged There is no evidence that the proposed changes will help to tackle under achievement or narrow the attainment gap between the richest and poorest students any more effectively than GCSEs The Government is also called upon to re-think its plans for a Statement of Achievement specifically for lower attaining pupils MPs agree that changes are needed to the way in which exams are run but they raise serious concerns about franchising subjects to exam boards The report is critical of the Government's decision to abolish some GCSEs before publishing the outcomes of the National Curriculum Review and its proposed changes to the school accountability system MPs also note the wide ranging stakeholder opposition to many of the Government's proposals

Task-Based English Language Teaching in the Digital Age Valentina Morgana, 2023-06-15 This book illustrates the developments of task based language teaching (TBLT) approaches in relation to the evolution of digital technologies It highlights how technology mediated TBLT principles can support English as a Foreign Language (EFL) learning and contribute to understanding new classroom dynamics Drawing from the key theoretical concepts of TBLT the author discusses the integration of tasks and technologies from a secondary education perspective which is often under represented in the TBLT literature Morgana looks at how the EFL secondary classroom has been recently re conceptualised as a social place whose boundaries go far behind the traditional school settings This book provides theoretical approaches and classroom implementation practices by presenting four case studies on the different L2 skills reading writing listening and speaking The volume is organised into two main sections The first section focuses on the theoretical approaches to TBLT and highlights the key concepts behind this methodology This section also looks at the recent development of a technology mediated TBLT framework and its implementations in various EFL educational contexts The second section presents four case studies of secondary school EFL learners in Italy Each case study focuses on a different language skill providing examples of classroom practices in both blended and online learning settings Pedagogical recommendations for teachers are provided at the end of each case study The book adopts a multimodal approach and aims at providing scholars in applied linguistics and TBLT practitioners with theories and implementation practices to understand the ways technologies are shaping tasks and mediating students learning processes
