Math Paper 2 2014 Prelim Gauteng Department

Santoshi Halder, Shakila Dada, Rashida
Banerjee

Math Paper 2 2014 Prelim Gauteng Department:

South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI

The Routledge Handbook of Inclusive Education for Teacher Educators Santoshi Halder, Shakila Dada, Rashida Banerjee, 2023-03-14 This handbook provides foundational conceptual and practical knowledge and understanding of inclusive education and special needs education It highlights the need for preparing special educators and teachers for inclusive classrooms to effectively cater to the needs of students with diverse needs in various low middle and high income countries globally It demonstrates various evidence based and practice based strategies required to create classrooms inclusive of diverse learners While tracing the historical trajectory of the foundational underpinnings philosophical bases and crucial issues associated with inclusive education this book presents a future roadmap and pathways through case instances and in depth discussions to share with educators how they can strengthen their bases and make learning more inclusive in their context It also provides an overview of the different models of assessment and their applications in the analysis of children in inclusive classroom settings Comprehensive accessible and nuanced this handbook will be of immense interest and benefit to teachers educators special educators students scholars and researchers in the areas of social inclusion education special needs education educational psychology technology for inclusion disability studies among other related disciplines It will be extremely beneficial for academicians teacher educators special educators and those interested in professional teacher training courses
