Reinventing America's Schools David Osborne, 2017-09-05 From David Osborne the author of Reinventing Government a biting analysis of the failure of America's public schools and a comprehensive plan for revitalizing American education In Reinventing America's Schools David Osborne one of the world's foremost experts on public sector reform offers a comprehensive analysis of the charter school movements and presents a theory that will do for American schools what his New York Times bestseller Reinventing Government did for public governance in 1992 In 2005 when Hurricane Katrina devastated New Orleans the city got an unexpected opportunity to recreate their school system from scratch The state's Recovery School District RSD created to turn around failing schools gradually transformed all of its New Orleans schools into charter schools and the results are shaking the very foundations of American education Test scores school performance scores graduation and dropout rates ACT scores college going rates and independent studies all tell the same story the city's RSD schools have tripled their effectiveness in eight years Now other cities are following suit with state governments reinventing failing schools in Newark Camden Memphis Denver Indianapolis Cleveland and Oakland In this book Osborne uses compelling stories from cities like New Orleans and lays out the history and possible future of public education Ultimately he uses his extensive research to argue that in today's world we should treat every public school like a charter school and grant them autonomy accountability diversity of school designs and parental choice Patternalia Jude

Stewart, 2015-10-13 From the author and designer of ROY G BIV a delightful fully illustrated new volume on patterns from polka dots to plaid their histories cultural resonances and hidden meanings Women in the National Inventors Hall of Fame Ilene Busch-Vishniac, Lauren Busch, Jill S. Tietjen, 2024-12-13 This book features all the women inducted in the first fifty years of the US National Inventors Hall of Fame Each entry first provides a biography of the inductee and then goes on to describe one or more of their major inventions with descriptions that are accessible to those with little or no formal training in science The evolution of the opportunities available to women in education and the professions becomes evident as the reader moves chronologically through biographies and inventions of the woman Later inductees have received Nobel Prizes for their work and have become members of academies such as the National Academy of Engineering the National Academy of Sciences and the National Academy of Medicine Others have received the National Medal of Science or the National Medal of Technology and Innovation As an important part of the Women in Science and Engineering book series the work highlights the contributions of women inventors inspiring women and men and girls and boys in a variety of scientific fields

Rebuilding New Orleans Sarah Fouts, 2025-06-24 In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina Central American and Mexican immigrants arrived in New Orleans to help clean up and rebuild When federal relief services overlooked the needs of immigrant led construction and cleanup crews as part of post Katrina mass feeding strategies street food stands and taco trucks stepped in to ensure food security for these workers Many of these food vendors settled in the city over the next decade opening restaurants and other businesses Yet in a city experiencing whitewashed redevelopment new immigrants were frequently pitted against Black poor and working class New Orleanians for access to housing and other resources During Fouts s five years as a volunteer with the New Orleans Workers Center for Racial Justice she came to know and interview the day laborers food workers culture producers and community organizers whose stories shape this book Her work reveals how after the storm immigrant communities have culturally and politically reshaped New Orleans and its suburbs Fouts also highlights how immigrants forged multiracial solidarities to foster inclusive change at the local level By connecting migration labor and food Rebuilding New Orleans centers human experiences to illustrate how immigrant and established communities of color resisted criminalization and racial capitalism to create a more just New Orleans "The Amazing Iroquois" and the Invention of the Empire State John C. Winters,2023 The Amazing Iroquois and the Invention of the Empire State tells the story of a multi generational Iroquoian family from American Revolution to the Cold War who used their peoples history politics and culture to shape how New Yorkers conceived of their own history and self identity
