Jfk Profile In Courage Essay:

PROFILES IN COURAGE JOHN F. KENNEDY, 1964 Contest(ed) Writing Mary Lamb, 2013-01-14 This collection is about writing contests a vibrant rhetorical practice traceable to rhetorical performances in ancient Greece In their discussion of contests cultural work the scholars who have contributed to this collection uncover important questions about our practices For example educational contests as epideictic rhetoric do indeed celebrate writing but does this celebration merely relieve educators of the responsibility of finding ways for all writers to succeed Contests designed to reward single winners and singly authored works admirably celebrate hard work but do they over emphasize exceptional individual achievement over shared goals and communal reward for success Taking a cultural rhetorical approach to contests each chapter demonstrates the cultural work the contests accomplish The essays in Part I examine contests and riddles in classical Greek and Roman periods educational contests in eighteenth century Scotland and the Lyceum movement in the Antebellum American South The next set of essays discusses how contests leverage competition and reward in educational settings medieval universities American turn of the century women s colleges twenty first century scholarship essay contests and writing contests for speakers of other languages at the University of Portsmouth The last set of essays examines popular contests including poetry contests in Youth Spoken Word popular American contests designed by marketers and twenty first century podcasting competitions This collection then takes up contests as a cultural marker of our values assumptions and relationships to writing contests and competition Understanding Government Information Connie Hamner

PRIVATE LIVES/PUBLIC CONSEQUENCES William Henry Chafe, William H. Chafe, 2005 A political leader s decisions can determine the fate of a nation but what determines how and why that leader makes certain choices William H Chafe a distinguished historian of twentieth century America examines eight of the most significant political leaders of the modern era in order to explore the relationship between their personal patterns of behavior and their political decision making process The result is a fascinating look at how personal lives and political fortunes have intersected to shape America over the past fifty years One might expect our leaders to be healthy wealthy genteel and happy In fact most of these individuals from Franklin Delano Roosevelt to Martin Luther King Jr from John F Kennedy to Bill Clinton came from dysfunctional families including three children of alcoholics half grew up in poor or only marginally secure homes most experienced discord in their marriages and at least two displayed signs of mental instability What links this extraordinarily diverse group is an intense ambition to succeed and the drive to overcome adversity Indeed adversity offered a vehicle to develop the personal attributes that would define their careers and shape the way they exercised power Chafe probes the influences that forged these men s lives and profiles the distinctive personalities that molded their exercise of power in times of danger and strife The history of the United States from the Depression into the new century cannot be understood without exploring the dynamic and critical relationship between personal history and political leadership that these eight life stories so poignantly reveal
