Jill Poole Contract Law 11th Edition:

Textbook on Contract Law Jill Poole, 2012-05-24 The eleventh edition of this established text provides a wide ranging and straightforward exposition of contract law Features such as summaries questions and examples combine with succinct explanatory text to allow the reader to gain a sound understanding of the theory and application of contract law principles

Philosophical Foundations of Contract Law Gregory Klass, George Letsas, Prince Saprai, 2014-12-19 In recent years there has been a revival of interest in the philosophical study of contract law In 1981 Charles Fried claimed that contract law is based on the philosophy of promise and this has generated what is today known as the contract and promise debate Cutting to the heart of contemporary discussions this volume brings together leading philosophers legal theorists and contract lawyers to debate the philosophical foundations of this area of law Divided into two parts the first explores general themes in the contract theory literature including the philosophy of promising the nature of contractual obligation economic accounts of contract law and the relationship between contract law and moral values such as personal autonomy and distributive justice The second part uses these philosophical ideas to make progress in doctrinal debates relating for example to contract interpretation unfair terms good faith vitiating factors and remedies Together the essays provide a picture of the current state of research in this revitalized area of law and pave the way for future study and debate

Poole's Textbook on Contract Law Robert Merkin, Séverine Saintier, 2019 The fourteenth edition of this established and popular text provides a clear and commercially focused exposition of contract law Case driven content and succinct explanations are combined with summaries questions and examples to allow students to gain a sound understanding of the theory and application of contract law principles

Poole's Casebook on Contract Law Robert Merkin, Severine Saintier, 2019 All the cases you need together with the tools to understand them Now updated by Professor Robert Merkin and Dr Severine Saintier Poole's Casebook on Contract Law takes a uniquely supportive approach to give you the confidence to engage with and analyse judgments

A Comparative Analysis of Policing Consumer Contracts in China and the EU Jiangqiu Ge, 2019-02-07 This book seeks to fill a gap in the existing literature by describing the formulation interpretation and enforcement of the rules on consumer contracts in China and the EU and by mapping key similarities and differences The study addresses selected issues regarding consumer contracts sources of law in the two jurisdictions are first discussed to set the scene Afterwards one preliminary issue how to define the concept of a consumer contract and two substantive topics unfair terms and withdrawal rights are dealt with Apart from the descriptive analysis the book also provides possible explanations for these comparative findings and argues that the differences in consumer contract rules can be primarily attributed to a disparity of markets The book offers a valuable resource particularly for researchers and practitioners in the fields of private law and comparative law
