Holocaust in History and Life Writing. An analysis of the parallels between historical resources and life writing and the use of historical symbols and knowledge in the life writing novels or memoirs "Maus and Night". Sina Laura Rautmann, 2017-07-14 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 1 3 Leuphana Universit t L neburg language English abstract Again the Holocaust is the answer a lot of pupils ask when the topic is brought up in school This might derive from the way the holocaust is taught mainly fact based without personal encounter of survivors or personal stories A different approach could be to read novels and memoirs of holocaust survivors to bring more personal aspects into the classroom But my hypotheses is that in order to understand those novels the readers need historical basic knowledge about the holocaust I assume that memoir authors use symbols and images that refer to the happenings without further explanation By doing this they leave more space for personal and emotional stories that cannot be found in pure fact based books or encyclopedias about the holocaust To get a full picture of the holocaust and understand the novels completely the reader needs to know the meaning of certain symbols for example chimneys or death marches In order to analyze this theory I am going to use historical literature as a reference point to see what events are neutrally described and taught as facts Then I will compare these facts to the novels The Complete Maus by Art Spiegelman and Night by Elie Wiesel to see whether they took time to explain the events more detailed or whether they just refer to a symbol or happening that would be counted as common knowledge First I will give an introduction to the novels to summarize their story and highlight peculiarities and differences In this part I will also give an overview over the historical literature that will be the basis for this paper In the second part I will highlight the most important facts symbols and images that are connected with holocaust events and recognized as general knowledge I will explain them shortly and present passages from the books that refer to these events In the end I will test my hypotheses and explain whether it has been proven as a true statement or not I will present my conclusion on the importance of memoirs and historical resources for a general overview on the topic of the Holocaust and NS regimes Current Index to Journals in Education ,1998
