Assured Destruction David Bath,2020-03-15 Assured Destruction Building the Ballistic Missile Culture of the U S Air Force documents the rapid development of nuclear ballistic missiles in the United States and their equally swift demise after the Cuban Missile Crisis revealing how these drastic changes negatively influenced both the Air Force and the missile community David W Bath contends that the struggle to create and control nuclear ballistic missiles threatened both the dominance of the United States during an intensifying Cold War and the strategic airpower mission of the newly created Air Force The book details the strenuous efforts required to create and prepare a missile arsenal before the Cuban Missile Crisis which occurred only five years after the first missile was declared operational It uses the personal recollections of former missileers and the professional military education theses they wrote to highlight some of the concerns that have faced the missileers who operated and worked on these powerful weapons from 1957 to the present The highlight of the book however is the personal stories of the missileers who served during the missile crisis revealing the efforts that they went to in order to prepare these unique and untried weapons for what many thought might become the third world war The Return of

Egypt Stefano M. Torelli,2015-09-17 Egypt has reappeared again as a leading actor in the Middle East After the fall of Mubarak the rise to power of the Muslim Brotherhood and its ouster the country has chosen its new strongman Following the elections of al Sisi Egypt is back to pursuing a pro active policy not only internally but also in the neighbourhood The restoration of the strategic axis with Saudi Arabia and the struggle against radical Islam are the two pillars of this new political phase However there are critical elements too from further deterioration of the political and civil liberties indexes to the emergence of jihadist groups in the Sinai to the enduring economic and financial difficulties As a result of these changes Europe and Italy should calibrate a new policy aimed at safeguarding their interests especially from the points of view of security stability and the fight against terrorism also promoting more inclusive practices by the Cairo government vis vis the opposition including the Muslim Brotherhood and developing policies which can help Egypt to respond to future challenges in terms of economic growth poverty alleviation demographic pressure and the creation of employment opportunities
