21st-Century Leper Gabriel Rivera, 2022-08-25 Someone reading this may imagine that writing a book is a glorious event For me it's like having a baby complete with restless nights soul searching morning sickness and birth pangs I agonize over every word I write often reliving the pain The difference of course is that once I have given birth to my book this baby gets no free passes If my book is an ugly baby there will be those who will bluntly tell me that without trying to spare my feelings My writing is occasionally bombastic There I admit it However the truth is the truth whether we shout it or whisper it or whether we sing it speak it or merely live it A fine meal may include several courses Sample them all before critiquing the entire meal or closing down the restaurant I ask you to approach my book on the same basis 21st Century Leper will take you on a roller coaster ride of emotional highs and lows At least that's the way I feel every time I read my own books However if you stop and isolate one slice at a time you may run the risk of missing the big picture I suggest that you read the entire book in as few sittings as possible But for the sake of those who may read in very short bursts separated by longer periods of nonreading as daily life may require I will lay bare my heart here and now on the subject of why I wrote this book in the first place Here's the big picture or the entire dining experience if you happen to prefer that metaphor
