Journal Entries For 8th Graders:

Learning Journals in the K-8 Classroom Marcia S. Popp, 2012-11-12 Learning Journals in the K 8 Classroom is the first comprehensive presentation of how to use academic journals effectively for elementary level instruction The text outlines the theoretical foundations for using learning journals and provides step by step suggestions for implementing them in every content area and at all levels of elementary instruction Learning journals provide resources and support for reading aloud independent reading mini lessons cooperative study individual research workshops and the portfolio system The type of interactive writing students do in learning journals helps them explore complex ideas in the content areas using their own strengths of analysis and response the journals then become resources for future learning group discussions individual conferences learning assessment reports and progress Four introductory chapters show teachers how to create their own journals introduce journals to students integrate them with cooperative study and use them for assessment Additional chapters focus on the individual curriculum areas of literature writing mathematics science and social studies The text includes sample entries from student journals at all grade levels and in every content area and appendices of annotated resources to support journaling and interviews with teachers who use journals in their classrooms

Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Andrew P. Johnson, 2006 Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies is based on the idea that students learn more and are more motivated to learn when they are able to connect their own knowledge observations ideas imagination and emotions with the content at hand This book demonstrates how personal connections can be incorporated into social studies education while meeting NCSS thematic pedagogical and disciplinary standards It is written in a very direct reader friendly style Each chapter describes a variety of practical strategies and creative activities that novice and experienced teachers can use to make social studies more interesting and to help students make meaningful personal and academic connections Each chapter contains a wealth of classroom strategies pedagogical techniques activities and lesson plan ideas that can be used to enhance learning and make lessons more interesting active and student centered The book covers the three types of standards that elementary and middle school teachers work with as they teach social studies

- o Thinking Ahead questions invite the reader to reflect on his her own experiences as they relate to the material covered in the next chapter These can be used as discussion points for a class or small group or simply as pre reading prompts to enhance comprehension
- o Teachers in Action boxes contain real life narratives from practicing teachers These cases are designed to expand upon key issues presented in each chapter Every case is accompanied by the author s personal reflection on the case These reflections are intended to give the reader an opinion against which he she can measure his her own reactions After each case the reader is prompted to think about the narrative presented and think about the way that his her reactions compare with those presented by the author
- o Go There boxes provide links to Web sites that offer additional resources for teachers lesson plans and other activities to enhance a social studies classroom This text is accompanied by a dynamic Instructor s Resources CD The CD includes classroom video footage that can be shown in class to illustrate the concepts presented in the book and stimulate class discussion
