

I had to read a lot in my Ap English classes in high school, so much so that I thought I didn't have time to waste on reading for pleasure. So I stopped reading. I would read a little over the summers while I was working, but still not as much. Then I read a book my grandma suggested called The Shining by Stephen King. I loved the movie, so I figured I'd give the book a try. The book was so scary and thrilling, even more so than the movie. Then I started to read more books that I'd seen the movies for. I'm one of those weirdos who loves to watch the movie before I read the book. It helps me to imagine the people and places better. High school was when I found that I could escape to the worlds in books. It was when I discovered everything they had to offer.
