Literacy Development In The Early Years Book Alone 5th Edition:

Handbook of Reading Disability Research Anne McGill-Franzen, Richard Allington, 2010-09-17 Bringing together a wide range of research on reading disabilities this comprehensive Handbook extends current discussion and thinking beyond a narrowly defined psychometric perspective Emphasizing that learning to read proficiently is a long term developmental process involving many interventions of various kinds all keyed to individual developmental needs it addresses traditional questions What is the nature or causes of reading disabilities How are reading disabilities assessed How should reading disabilities be remediated To what extent is remediation possible but from multiple or alternative perspectives Taking incursions into the broader research literature represented by linguistic and anthropological paradigms as well as psychological and educational research the volume is on the front line in exploring the relation of reading disability to learning and language to poverty and prejudice and to instruction and schooling The editors and authors are distinguished scholars with extensive research experience and publication records and numerous honors and awards from professional organizations representing the range of disciplines in the field of reading disabilities Throughout their contributions are contextualized within the framework of educators struggling to develop concrete instructional practices that meet the learning needs of the lowest achieving readers

Book Smart Anne E. Cunningham, PhD, Jamie Zibulsky, 2014 In Book Smart How to Support Successful Motivated Readers the experience of reading together is used as a vehicle for discussing the varied yet interconnected language and literacy skills that jumpstart the career of a successful reader

Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse Finley, Stacie Lynn, Correll, Pamela, Pearman, Cathy, Huffman, Stephanie, 2023-07-25 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse is a peer reviewed research book that challenges the traditional monolingual classroom approach where the teacher's voice dominates and only the dominant culture's language is considered the path to success The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard valued and empowered It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development honor all students voices and empower them This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student centered classroom practices By encouraging discourse among students educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices

Digital Personalization in Early Childhood Natalia Kucirkova, 2017-09-07 Digital personalization is an emerging interdisciplinary research field with application to a variety of areas including design education and publication industry This book focuses on children's education and literacy resources which have undergone important changes with the personalization revolution in the early 21st century The author develops original insights from educational research and her own studies concerned with digital and non digital personalization to discuss in a clear and critical way the thinking research issues and practical implications of this new field She scrutinises the character of technology based personalized education to substantiate the claim that the current models of personalized education tend to be technology and business driven with little pedagogical understanding of the social value of personalization Research involving touchscreens personalized books and 2 8 year olds is interrogated for its impact on children s development of language creativity identity as well as family dynamics and classroom dialogue The literature available on digital and non digital personalization is discussed in relation to five key themes of personalized education the so called 5As autonomy authorship aesthetics attachment and authenticity It is argued that the 5As need to be anchored in humanist principles for a sustainable pedagogy and practice Based on the insights from research with typically and atypically developing children Kucirkova proposes personalised pluralisation as a pedagogical framework of personalized education for the future The book aims to help scholars and professionals understand the connections between personalization and literacy personalization and education and personalization and wider socio moral issues      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002      An Educational Psychology Textbook Equity,2014-10-10 The first half of the book focuses on broader questions and principles taken from psychology per se and the second half focuses on somewhat more practical issues of teaching All parts of the book draw on research theory and practical wisdom wherever appropriate Chapter 2 is about learning theory and Chapter 3 is about development Chapter 4 is about several forms of student diversity and Chapter 5 is about students with disabilities Chapter 6 is about motivation Following these somewhat more basic psychological chapters we turn to several lasting challenges of classroom life challenges that seem to be an intrinsic part of the job Chapter 7 offers ideas about classroom management Chapter 8 ideas about communicating with students Chapter 9 about ways to assist students complex forms of thinking and Chapter 10 about planning instruction systematically The book closes with two chapters about assessment of learning      A Practical Guide to Early Childhood Curriculum Claudia Fuhrman Eliason,Loa Thomson Jenkins,2008 This applied guide to planning and implementing curriculum across the content areas for children ages 3 to 8 provides students with a depth of background knowledge not usually seen in a text containing practical highlighted strategies unit and lesson plans suggested activities recipes and more Core chapters cover Social studies including diverse people self and family physical activity and nutrition Language development Literacy development Science 3 separate chapters Problem solving and math Music and movement Creativity art and dramatic activities Key changes to this edition include separate chapters on language development and literacy development new tables linking learning activities with specific content area standards streamlined content throughout and new Web sites      Resources in Education ,1998      Here's How to Provide Intervention for Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder Catherine B.
