Barlowe,2024-08-08 Silent Film Adaptations of Novels by British and American Women Writers 1903 1929 focuses on fifty three silent film adaptations of the novels of acclaimed authors George Eliot Charlotte Bront Emily Bront Mary Shelley Louisa May Alcott Harriet Beecher Stowe Willa Cather and Edith Wharton Many of the films are unknown or dismissed and most of them are degraded destroyed or lost burned in warehouse fires spontaneously combusted in storage cans or quietly turned to dust Their content and production and distribution details are reconstructed through archival resources as individual narratives that when considered collectively constitute a broader narrative of lost knowledge a fragmented and buried early twentieth century story now reclaimed and retold for the first time to a twenty first century audience This collective narrative also demonstrates the extent to which the adaptations are intertextually and ideologically entangled with concurrently released early woman s films to re promote and re instill the norm of idealized white married domesticated womanhood during a time of extraordinary cultural change for women Retelling this lost narrative also allows for a reassessment of the place and function of the adaptations in the development of the silent film industry and as cinematic precedent for the hundreds of sound adaptations of the literary texts of these eight women writers produced from 1931 to the 2020s TLA safe often puts them in harm's way. By protecting them from failure and disappointment, challenge and responsibility, many of our children are missing out on the benefits that come with manageable amounts of risk. Accessible, inspiring, and practical, Too Safe for Their Own Good helps concerned parents set appropriate limits and provides concrete suggestions for allowing children the chance to experience the rites of passage that will help them become competent, happy, thriving adults.

Internationally renowned expert on resilience in at-risk youth and father of two, Michael Unger runs a private practice for children and adults in mental health and correctional settings. He is a professor at the School of Social Work at Dalhousie University and leader of the International Resilience Project.
