Anderson, Daniel R. Green, 2024-10-31 Informed by senior policymakers with extensive expertise in defense this book provides a comprehensive regional and functional perspective on US policy toward the People's Republic of China Confronting China addresses the central security questions of our generation How best can the United States deter Chinese aggression and win the peace China's pursuit of global hegemony reflects a patient yet determined effort to reshape the international order in its favor Deterring Chinese aggression and winning the peace necessitates an integrated approach that draws upon all instruments of US national power Drawing on the insightful analysis of more than a dozen senior national security practitioners chapters discuss the China challenge from multiple perspectives Contributors examine the different dimensions of China's growing power and assess how well they advance the Chinese Communist Party's political ambitions and what must be done to counter them Drawing upon each writer's particular areas of expertise chapter authors provide concrete strategy based and resource informed policy recommendations In the concluding chapter the editors review common threads and key insights from the preceding chapters placing them in a larger strategic context Smitten Rodney Hessinger, 2022-12-15 In Smitten Rodney Hessinger examines how the Second Great Awakening disrupted gender norms across a breadth of denominations The displacement and internal migration of Americans created ripe conditions for religious competition in the North Hessinger argues that during this time of religious ferment religious seekers could in turn play the missionary or the convert The dynamic of religious rivalry inexorably led toward sexual and gender disruption Contending within an increasingly democratic religious marketplace preachers had to court converts in order to flourish They won followers through charismatic allure and making concessions to the desires of the people Opening their own hearts to new religious impulses some religious visionaries offered up radical dispensations including new visions of how God wanted them to reorder sex and gender relations in society A wide array of churches including Methodists Baptists Mormons Shakers Catholics and Perfectionists joined the fray Religious contention and innovation ultimately produced backlash Charges of seduction and gender trouble ignited fights within among and against churches Religious opponents insisted that the newly converted were smitten with preachers rather than choosing churches based on reason and scripture Such criticisms coalesced into a broader pan Protestant rejection of religious enthusiasm Smitten reveals the sexual disruptions and subsequent domestication of religion during the Second Great Awakening
