

Janson's History of Art

The book cover features a reproduction of Johannes Vermeer's painting 'The Astronomer'. The central figure is a young man with a fair complexion and a serious expression, wearing a dark, high-collared garment with a large, ornate white lace ruff. He is holding a book in his left hand, which is resting on a table. On the table, there are several objects: a small vase with a pink rose, a glass of water, and some papers. In the background, there is a window with a view of a landscape, and a small figure of a person is visible in the distance. The overall style is characteristic of the Northern Renaissance.
