

LAST WORDS OF SAINTS AND SINNERS

The last words of the dying have fascinated readers throughout history. They provide a brief glimpse through the window of human character, revealing the fears, hopes, courage, and legacies of both the famous and not-so-famous.

This collection of seven hundred quotes features the last words of kings, commoners, atheists, poets, politicians, and martyred Christians. Carefully researched and collected by well-known author Herbert Lockyer, these final utterances cover a wide variety of topics including heaven, hell, good, evil, justice, judgment, and even humor. Also included is a helpful introduction by the author, outlining the historical context of the "last words" as well as a summary of the Christian view of death.

An instructive work for even the casual reader and a ready reference source for the pastor or public speaker.

HERBERT LOCKYER (1886–1984) was born in London, England, and educated in Glasgow, Scotland. His many decades of ministry included pastoral work as well as an extensive teaching and lecturing ministry throughout the United States, Canada, and other countries. A prolific author, he wrote more than fifty books, including his well-known All Series of Bible study and reference works.
