Law Enforcement Performance Evaluation Guide:

В театре и в цирке, 1976 Performance Evaluation Guide for Detectives and Police Officers Assigned to Detective Track Commands New York (N.Y.). Police Department, 1996 Guidelines for Police Performance Appraisal, Promotion and Placement Procedures Sidney Epstein, Richard S. Laymon, 1973 These guidelines are intended to provide instruction and guidance to police managers and supervisors concerned with carrying out personnel appraisal responsibilities Data used in developing the guidelines were gathered from a literature review covering performance appraisal promotion and placement functions as well as a survey of personnel procedures followed by over 200 police departments throughout the country While the emphasis here is on the patrolman position and his promotion either to corporal or sergeant or his transfer to a lateral position to investigations or technical support the guidelines are applicable to other police positions The three substantive areas covered in the guidelines include performance appraisal promotion and placement each section contains information on existing technologies and practices and specific recommendations for procedural improvements 7 figures and 14 references Police Performance Appraisals Serdar Kenan Gul, Paul O'Connell, 2012-09-24 Police performance appraisal is one of the most important components of law enforcement management affecting the quality of the services a department delivers as well as the satisfaction of its employees Therefore it is crucial that the performance appraisal process is conducted in an effective and equitable manner Police Performance Appraisals A Comparative Perspective employs the comparative case study approach to evaluate systems in police departments in two diverse locales Ankara Turkey and Toledo Ohio The study seeks to determine whether there are any common trends or obvious similarities that transcend national and cultural boundaries From this information best practices can be identified to improve the system of any police organization The data from the survey raises a host of issues essential to police management Are traditional or modern appraisal systems more preferable to police personnel Are field and command officers perceptions of the performance evaluation instruments in their departments similar or do they differ from those of their subordinates Asking these and other critical questions the authors also examine the relationship between the officer's perception of the appraisal system and his or her rank taking into account level of education gender age and years of service Employing both qualitative and quantitative methodologies this study yields important findings and valuable insights for police organizations as to which characteristics an appraisal process should have for the best quality system Lessons learned from this study should provide guidance to future efforts to design better appraisal systems and may also contribute to heightened focus on nationwide assessments of evaluation practices and standards for police organizations Field Training for Police Officers Michael S. McCampbell, 1987 Law Enforcement Ethics Brian D. Fitch, 2013-03-22 Law Enforcement Ethics Classic and Contemporary Issues for the New Millennium covers many of the important facets of law enforcement ethics including the selection training and supervision of officers Editor Brian D Fitch brings together the works of a diverse task force with a vested interest in reducing officer misconduct including law enforcement scholars, educators and practitioners from a variety of disciplines to present a comprehensive look at this critical subject that is gaining more attention in agencies and in the media today. The text covers topics on the roles of culture, environment, social learning, policy and reward systems as they pertain to law enforcement ethics as well as the ethics of force, interrogations, marginality and racial profiling. This volume also covers several unique aspects of ethics such as the role of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder in misconduct, PTSD, cheating during law enforcement promotional practices, off duty misconduct and best practices in developing countries. Manual for Police Traffic Services Personnel Performance Evaluation System: Supervisor's guide
