spare time while he was the legal member of the Governor General of India's Supreme Council from 1834 to 1838. He later wrote of them: "The plan occurred to me in the jungle at the foot of the Neilgherry hills and most of the verses were made during a dreary sojourn at Ootacamund and a disagreeable voyage in the Bay of Bengal." The Roman ballads are preceded by brief introductions discussing the legends from a scholarly perspective. Macaulay explains that his intention was to write poems resembling those that might have been sung in ancient times. The Lays were first published by Longman in 1842 at the beginning of the Victorian Era. They became immensely popular and were a regular subject of recitation then a common pastime.
