Unconsciousness Between Phenomenology and Psychoanalysis Dorothée Legrand, Dylan Trigg, 2017-05-18 This book contains a series of essays that explore the concept of unconsciousness as it is situated between phenomenology and psychoanalysis A leading goal of the collection is to carve out phenomenological dimensions within psychoanalysis and equally to carve out psychoanalytical dimensions within phenomenology The book examines the nature of unconsciousness and the role it plays in structuring our sense of self It also looks at the extent to which the unconscious marks the body as it functions outside of experience as well as manifests itself in experience In addition the book explores the relationship between unconsciousness and language particularly if unconsciousness exists prior to language or if the concept can only be understood through speech The collection includes contributions from leading scholars each of whom grounds their investigations in a nuanced mastery of the traditional voices of their fields These contributors provide diverse viewpoints that challenge both the phenomenological and psychoanalytical traditions in their relation to unconsciousness Jacques Lacan (Volume I) (RLE: Lacan) Michael Clark, 2014-02-05 This bibliography in two volumes originally published in 1988 lists and describes works by and about Jacques Lacan published in French English and seven other languages including Japanese and

Russian It incorporates and corrects where necessary all information from earlier published bibliographies of Lacan's work Also included as background works are books and essays that discuss Lacan in the course of a more general study as well as all relevant items in various bibliographic sources from many fields
