Comprehensive Review of Revised Article 9 provides a detailed review and explanation of Revised Article 9 of the UCC by examining revisions made to areas of Scope Attachment Perfection Priority and Default provisions found within Article 9 The book treats each area separately with cross referencing to other areas when necessary to provide an in depth analysis of Revised Article 9 For each area the book provides a commentary concerning differences between Revised and Former Article 9 and it also includes detailed outlines of the revised rules Many hypotheticals are included within the outlines to illustrate the legal application of the rules to both commercial and consumer financing transactions The book also includes multiple choice questions for each of the revised areas along with discussions that identify the correct answers and explain why the answers are correct as well as why the other choices are incorrect The book is ideal for students or practitioners who need
