Meta Religion Religion And Power In World History:

Meta-religion James W. Laine, 2014 Meta Religion is a groundbreaking text that brings power and politics to the fore of our understanding of world religions placing religion at the center of world history This synthetic approach is both transformative and enlightening as it presents a powerful model for thinking differently about what religion is and how it functions in the world

Making Sense of World History Rick Szostak, 2020-10-22 Making Sense of World History is a comprehensive and accessible textbook that helps students understand the key themes of world history within a chronological framework stretching from ancient times to the present day To lend coherence to its narrative the book employs a set of organizing devices that connect times places and or themes This narrative is supported by Flowcharts that show how phenomena within diverse broad themes interact in generating key processes and events in world history A discussion of the common challenges faced by different types of agent including rulers merchants farmers and parents and a comparison of how these challenges were addressed in different times and places An exhaustive and balanced treatment of themes such as culture politics and economy with an emphasis on interaction Explicit attention to skill acquisition in organizing information cultural sensitivity comparison visual literacy integration interrogating primary sources and critical thinking A focus on historical episodes that are carefully related to each other Through the use of such devices the book shows the cumulative effect of thematic interactions through time communicates the many ways in which societies have influenced each other through history and allows us to compare and contrast how they have reacted to similar challenges They also allow the reader to transcend historical controversies and can be used to stimulate class discussions and guide student assignments With a unified authorial voice and offering a narrative from the ancient to the present this is the go to textbook for World History courses and students The Open Access version of this book has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
