

A Christian Marriage at Bellevue United Methodist Church

Congratulations! We know that your decision to marry is an exciting and joyful one, made with careful thought and filled with hope. The decision to have your wedding in the church suggests that you have a sense of God's presence in your relationship and that you anticipate God's blessings as you live out your marriage covenant. As a people of faith we remember that one of the first things Jesus did with his disciples was to take them to a wedding! We trust that Christ continues to bless our loving commitments with his presence and power. In Christ's spirit, our congregation looks forward to helping you make your wedding a meaningful and holy event.

In the context of faith a wedding is not simply a beautiful ceremony but a service of worship. In keeping with this understanding we have written the guidelines included in this handbook. Please read these guidelines and policies carefully, make copies available to all persons involved in the wedding (including the photographer, caterer, videographer, and florist.) Taking time to review these policies now will ensure a much smoother planning process in the days to come.

The people of Bellevue United Methodist Church are grateful for the opportunity to share with you in the celebration of your marriage!
