Connection William Friedkin,2013-04-16 An acclaimed memoir from an American cinema maverick and Academy Award winning director of such legendary films as The French Connection and The Exorcist The Friedkin Connection takes readers from the streets of Chicago to the suites of Hollywood and from the sixties to today with autobiographical storytelling as fast paced and intense as any of the auteur s films Friedkin s success story has the makings of classic American film He was born in Chicago the son of Russian immigrants Immediately after high school he found work in the mailroom of a local television station and patiently worked his way into the directing booth during the heyday of live TV. An award winning documentary brought him attention as a talented new filmmaker and an advocate for justice and it caught the eye of producer David L. Wolper who brought Friedkin to Los Angeles. There he moved from television to film displaying a versatile stylistic range. In 1971 The French Connection was released and won five Academy Awards including Best Picture and Best Director and two years later The Exorcist received ten Oscar nominations and catapulted Friedkin's career to stardom. Penned by the director himself, The Friedkin Connection takes readers on a journey through the numerous chance encounters and unplanned occurrences that led a young man from a poor urban neighborhood to success in one of the most competitive industries and art forms in the world. In this fascinating and candid story he has much to say about the world of moviemaking and his place within it. Friedkin's against all odds success story is compelling reading from the start. LA Weekly     Eighty Odd Years in Hollywood John Meredyth Lucas, 2014-11-18 John Meredyth Lucas son of silent screen star and screenwriter Bess Meredyth Ben Hur The Sea Beast When a Man Loves Don Juan and stepson of renowned Hungarian born director Michael Curtiz Casablanca Mildred Pierce Yankee Doodle Dandy Life with Father came of age in Hollywood during the 1930s Lucas went on to an impressive career of his own as a writer producer director. He made films with Hal Wallis Ross Hunter Walt Disney and others and he wrote produced and directed such classic television series as Mannix The Fugitive and Star Trek. Completed shortly before his death in 2002 Lucas memoir is filled with never before told recollections of many Hollywood greats and features previously unpublished photographs. With Lucas we go behind the scenes onto the studio lots and into the parties with family friends John Barrymore Joan Crawford Errol Flynn and Jack Warner to name just a few. It's a boy's eye view of Hollywood in a time of glamour decadence and the golden years of filmmaking.     Each Man in His Time Raoul Walsh, 1974 One of Hollywood's most prolific and respected action directors Raoul Walsh was also one of the longest lived figures in film with a career that spanned almost a half century. After running away from home as a boy and working in a variety of capacities including as a cowboy in the West Walsh drifted into stage acting in New York and later into motion pictures as an actor. He became an assistant director to D. W. Griffith and in 1914 made his first movie. By the mid 1920s Walsh had a reputation for direct straightforward no frills narrative and his style was particularly suited to action films and outdoor dramas although his biggest film of that decade was the fantasy epic The Thief of Bagdad produced by and starring Douglas Fairbanks Sr which continues to be shown seven decades later. His work in the 1930s mostly for 20th Century Fox embraced comedy and drama in equal measure but it was with Warner Bros beginning at the end of the 1930s that Walsh came into his own directing such classics as The Roaring Twenties 1939 They Drive By Night 1940 High Sierra 1941 Desperate Journey 1942 and Northern Pursuit 1943 starring James Cagney Humphrey Bogart and Errol Flynn. Despite his reputation as an action director Walsh's movies were usually much more sophisticated than was typical for the genre he revelled in psychological themes and he loved offbeat characterizations and unusual narrative structures attributes best reflected in the dark Western drama Pursued 1947 starring Robert Mitchum and the crime film White Heat 1949 with James Cagney He also served as unofficial co director on one of Humphrey Bogart s most interesting later movies The Enforcer 1951 His later movies showed a slackening of style and he never did seem as effective working in color as he did in black and white Walsh lost an eye while working on In Old Arizona in 1929 and his deteriorating sight in the other eye led to his retirement in 1964 Biography by Bruce Eder from www.allmovie.com
