Queer Objects to the Rescue George Paul Meiu, 2023-12-13 Examines forms of intimate citizenship that have emerged in relation to growing anti homosexual violence in Kenya Campaigns calling on police and citizens to purge their countries of homosexuality have taken hold across the world But the homosexual threat they claim to be addressing is not always easy to identify To make that threat visible leaders media and civil society groups have deployed certain objects as signifiers of queerness In Kenya for example bead necklaces plastics and even diapers have come to represent the danger posed by homosexual behavior to an essentially virile construction of national masculinity In Queer Objects to the Rescue George Paul Meiu explores objects that have played an important and surprising role in both state led and popular attempts to rid Kenya of various imagined threats to intimate life Meiu shows that their use in the political imaginary has been crucial to representing the homosexual body as a societal threat and as a target of outrage violence and exclusion while also crystallizing anxieties over wider political and economic instability To effectively understand and critique homophobia Meiu suggests we must take these objects seriously and recognize them as potential sources for new forms of citizenship intimacy resistance and belonging Kenya Past and Present ,1991 Handbook of Research on Learner-Centered Pedagogy in Teacher Education and Professional Development Keengwe, Jared, Onchwari, Grace, 2016-08-18 Education in the 21st century is shifting focus from accessing and sharing information to designing active and collaborative learning environments which foster student engagement and critical thinking skills Active learning features a hands on activity based teaching approach during which students synthesize information and take joy in new discovery The Handbook of Research on Learner Centered Pedagogy in Teacher Education and Professional Development presents a comprehensive look into the methodologies and strategies necessary to establish classroom climates in which students feel free to question their preconceptions and express opinions Featuring chapters from international researchers this book is ideal for administrators teachers policy makers and students of education Traditional Warfare Among the Meru of Mt. Kenya Jeffrey Fadiman, 1973 Papers in International Studies ,1980 Global Perspectives on Science and Christianity Mike Brownnutt, Keith R. Fox, 2024-09-30 The discussion of how science and Christianity relate to each other is a truly global one Christianity around the world encompasses diverse sets of perspectives ideas and challenges Similarly the practice and perception of science can vary significantly from one region to another When brought together in their global contexts we find a richness in the engagement between science and Christianity that leads to diverse questions and distinctive answers Global Perspectives on Science and Christianity brings together scholars from six continents hailing from disciplines of natural and social sciences theology history and philosophy to provide a unique collection of perspectives on how science and Christianity relate around the world Tackling some issues that are seldom addressed as well as providing fresh perspectives on perennial topics this is an important relevant and genuinely global contribution to the discussion Ethical Innovation in Business and the Economy Georges Enderle, Patrick E. Murphy, 2015-12-18 Innovation has become a buzzword that promises dramatic changes in almost every field of business. Absent from this attention is a serious discussion of the ethical sides of dramatic change. To address this, editors Georges Enderle and Patrick E. Murphy gather a team of experts to fully examine the ethics of innovation within business and the economy in this standout addition to the Studies in Transatlantic Business Ethics series.

The First Ascent of Mount Kenya Halford John Mackinder, 1991 An account of the author's ascent of Mount Kenya in 1899. Mackinder led a caravan of 176 persons to the summit of the higher of the two peaks. Despite an agreement with William Heinemann, the account has not been published until now. This volume includes additional notes by an English geographer.
