Moving Among Strangers Randolph Stow And My Family:

Moving Among Strangers Gabrielle Carey, 2013-11-01 Two literary lives defined by storytelling and secrets As her mother Joan lies dying Gabrielle Carey writes a letter to Joan's childhood friend the reclusive novelist Randolph Stow This letter sets in motion a literary pilgrimage that reveals long buried family secrets Like her mother Stow had grown up in Western Australia After early literary success and a Miles Franklin Award win in 1958 for his novel To the Islands he left for England and a life of self imposed exile Living most of her life on the east coast Gabrielle was also estranged from her family's west Australian roots but never questioned why A devoted fan of Stow's writing she becomes fascinated by his connection with her extended family but before she can meet him he dies With only a few pieces of correspondence to guide her Gabrielle embarks on a journey from the red dirt landscape of Western Australia to the English seaside town of Harwich in a quest to understand her family's past and Stow's place in it Moving Among Strangers is a celebration of one of Australia's most enigmatic and visionary writers

Moving Among Strangers Gabrielle Carey, 2014-11-28 Two literary lives defined by storytelling and secrets As her mother Joan lies dying Gabrielle Carey writes a letter to Joan's childhood friend the reclusive novelist Randolph Stow This letter sets in motion a literary pilgrimage that reveals long buried family secrets Like her mother Stow had grown up in Western Australia After early literary success and a Miles Franklin Award win in 1958 for his novel To the Islands he left for England and a life of self imposed exile Living most of her life on the east coast Gabrielle was also estranged from her family's west Australian roots but never questioned why A devoted fan of Stow's writing she becomes fascinated by his connection with her extended family but before she can meet him he dies With only a few pieces of correspondence to guide her Gabrielle embarks on a journey from the red dirt landscape of Western Australia to the English seaside town of Harwich in a quest to understand her family's past and Stow's place in it Moving Among Strangers is a celebration of one of Australia's most enigmatic and visionary writers

Mick Suzanne Falkiner, 2016 Randolph Stow was one of the great Australian writers of his generation His novel To the Islands written in his early twenties after living on a remote Aboriginal mission won the Miles Franklin Award for 1958 In later life after publishing seven remarkable novels and several collections of poetry Stow's literary output slowed This biography examines the productive period as well as his long periods of publishing silence In Mick A Life of Randolph Stow Suzanne Falkiner unravels the reasons behind Randolph Stow's quiet retreat from Australia and the wider literary world Meticulously researched insightful and at times deeply moving Falkiner's biography pieces together an intriguing story from Stow's personal letters diaries and interviews with the people who knew him best And many of her tales from Stow's beginnings in idyllic rural Australia to his critical turning point in Papua New Guinea and his final years in Essex England provide us with keys to unlock the meaning of Stow's rich and introspective works The overriding virtue of this book is Falkiner's steady trust in the intelligence of her readers She spells very little out presenting us instead with this carefully curated wealth of textual evidence Kerryn Goldsworthy Australian

Book Review Finally we have some sense of the wounds that shaped and animated Stow's poetry and fiction Geordie Williamson The Australian Suzanne Falkiner's prodigious biography of Randolph Stow is a book long awaited by many not just the literati of his native Australia but those countless readers who feasted on his novels and wondered what kind of person could write with such imaginative power Not only do we come to appreciate what led this renowned Australian writer to create his celebrated fictional works but we are also given rare glimpses into the inner world of this most private individual whose personal demons included a dependence on alcohol two suicide attempts and struggles with homosexuality Falkiner cut her teeth on six previous biographies which stood her in good stead to tackle this challenge Against significant odds she has done a masterful job in painting a portrait of one of Australia's most revered writers somewhat akin to what compatriot David Marr did for Nobel Prize winning author Patrick White It will no doubt send readers scurrying back to Stow's novels which as Marr once said is the best news a biographer can hear World Literature Today January February 2017 Subject Biography Literary Criticism

Only Happiness Here Gabrielle Carey, 2020-09-29 When I discovered Elizabeth von Arnim I found for the first time a writer who wrote about being happy Elizabeth von Arnim is one of the early twentieth century's most famous and almost forgotten authors She was ahead of her time in her understanding of women and their often thwarted pursuit of happiness Born in Sydney in the mid 1800s she went on to write many internationally bestselling novels marry a Prussian Count and then an English Lord develop close friendships with H G Wells and E M Forster and raise five children Intrigued by von Arnim's extraordinary life Gabrielle Carey sets off on a literary and philosophical journey to learn about this bold and witty author More than a biography Only Happiness Here is also a personal investigation into our perennial obsession with finding joy

Tourmaline Randolph Stow, 2015-08-26 There is no stretch of land on earth more ancient than this And so it is blunt and red and barren littered with the fragments of broken mountains flat waterless Tourmaline in outback Western Australia is dying its mines lie abandoned and drought has taken hold When the enigmatic diviner Michael Random emerges from the desert desperate townspeople see him as a messiah Random begins to spread the word of God and to promise them water that most precious resource Both a complex spiritual parable and an enduring apocalyptic vision Tourmaline is Randolph Stow's most controversial novel Julian Randolph Mick Stow was born in Geraldton Western Australia in 1935 He attended local schools before boarding at Guildford Grammar in Perth where the renowned author Kenneth Mackenzie had been a student While at university he sent his poems to a British publisher The resulting collection Act One won the Australian Literature Society's Gold Medal in 1957 as did the prolific young writer's third novel To the Islands the following year To the Islands also won the 1958 Miles Franklin Literary Award Stow reworked the novel for a second edition almost twenty five years later but never allowed its two predecessors to be republished He worked briefly as an anthropologist's assistant in New Guinea an experience that subsequently informed Visitants one of three masterful late novels then fell seriously ill and returned to Australia In the 1960s he lectured at universities in Australia and

England and lived in America on a Harkness fellowship He published his second collection of verse Outrider the novel Tourmaline on which critical opinion was divided and his most popular fiction The Merry Go Round in the Sea and Midnite For years afterwards Stow produced mainly poetry libretti and reviews In 1969 he settled permanently in England first in Suffolk then in Essex where he moved in 1981 He received the 1979 Patrick White Award Randolph Stow died in 2010 aged seventy four A private man a prodigiously gifted yet intermittently silent author he has been hailed as the least visible figure of that great twentieth century triumvirate of Australian novelists whose other members are Patrick White and Christina Stead Praise for Tourmaline Intense and extraordinary Spectator Brilliantly evocative disturbing Meanjin A member of the Australian literary triumvirate that included Patrick White and Christina Stead Stow was an original and this is an unsung 1963 classic with which to reckon Favourite Fiction and Non Fiction of 2016 Irish Times Just Us Gabrielle Carey,1984 Co author of Puberty blues Gabrielle Carey made the mistake of falling in love with Terence Haley a notorious long term prison inmate This is an account of their love affair and a fierce indictment of our prisons and the ways we punish people

Falling Out of Love with Ivan Southall Gabrielle Carey,2018 At the age of nine Gabrielle Carey fell in love with her favourite author She wasn't alone Hundreds of thousands of other young readers also fell in love with Ivan Southall and many wrote him adoring fan mail But Ivan Southall warm and tender in his letters to children is not she finds so loveable in real life In fact he is not the man that Gabrielle remembered at all Part memoir part literary biography this intimate book explores what happens when we reach back in time to recover our first loves What will we find when we stop believing in the ideas and the people that made us who we are What's left over In My Father's House Gabrielle Carey,1992-01-01 As with her previous books P TPuberty Blues co authored with Kathy Lette and TJust Us P this book is autobiographical It deals with father daughter relations and her father's suicide and looks at how different cultures deal with death So Many Selves Gabrielle Carey,2006 A fabulous honest memoir from the other author of Puberty Blues Puberty Blues Gabrielle Carey,Kathy Lette,1979 Bestselling novel first published in 1979 about two young surfer chicks growing up in the 1970s Lette's other publications include Girl's Night Out and Carey has also written In My Father's House The Borrowed Girl Gabrielle Carey,1994 Novel that deals with the search for identity human heritage and the struggles of the human spirit Mariana is a young girl who as a baby was lent by her poverty stricken mother to a wealthy childless couple As she grows up she becomes drawn to her Indian heritage and the ways of the campesinos The story describes her struggles to reconcile the two ways of life The author co wrote Puberty Blues and In My Father's House which was shortlisted for the NSW Premier's Literary Award Family Therapy with Hispanics Maria T.
