Japan At War An Oral History:

Japan at War Haruko Taya Cook, Theodore F. Cook, 1992 An oral history of Japan during World War II recounts this terrible conflict through the eyes of the Japanese soldiers laborers newspapermen artists musicians women who lived through it 20 000 first printing Japan at War Haruko Taya Cook, Theodore F. Cook, 1995-08-01 Japan at War

Haruko Taya Cook, Theodore F. Cook, 1992-10-30 This pathbreaking work of oral history captures the remarkable story of ordinary Japanese people during WW2 Takes us from the Japanese attacks on China in the 1930s to the Japanese homefront during the inhuman raids on Tokyo Hiroshima Nagasaki offering the first glimpses of how the 20th century s most violent conflict affected the lives of the Japanese population In the oral histories the authors encountered every form of response those who held to their principles those who gave in to opportunism those who controlled events as well as the many including women children who were caught up in the horrific whirlpool A monumental work of history that captures the complex range of Japanese experiences emotions

Japan at War: an Oral History, (by) Haruko Taya Cook and

Theodore F. Cook Haruko Taya Cook, 1992 Japanese War Brides in America Miki Ward Crawford, Katie Kaori

Hayashi, Shizuko Suenaga, 2009-11-25 Following the end of World War II 500 000 American troops occupied every prefecture of Japan and interracial marriages occurred The sudden influx of 50 000 Japanese war brides during 1946 1965 created social tension in the United States while opening up one of the country s largest cross cultural integrations This book reveals the stories of 19 Japanese war brides whose assimilation into American culture forever influenced future generations depicting love strength and perseverance in the face of incredible odds The Japanese war brides hold a unique place in American history and have been called ambassadors to the United States For the first time in English these women share their triumphs sorrows successes and identity in a time when their own future was tainted by social segregation This oral history focuses mainly on women s lives in the period following World War II and the occupation of Japan It illuminates the cultural expectations the situations brought about by the war and effects of the occupation and also include quotes from various war brides regarding this time Chapter interviews are set up in chronological fashion and laid out in the following format introduction of the war bride how she met her husband her initial travels to America and life thereafter Where needed explanations translations and background history with references are provided Writing Japan's War in New Guinea

Victoria Eaves-Young, 2025-10-01 Tamura Yoshikazu is destined to die on the alien shores of the New Guinea warzone Devoid of family contact perplexed by the unfamiliarity of his environment deprived of even meagre amenities and faced with the spectre of debilitating illness and starvation this solitary soldier commenced a diary in the early part of 1943 Employed in the hard labour of building airstrips he is ground down by tedium disheartened by the now dysfunctional military hierarchy consumed by grief at the meaningless deaths of comrades and stripped of any chance of being involved in an aspect of war that he considers heroic and meaningful Profoundly unsettled by all that appears to be at odds with the kokutai ideology

Tamura employs strategies through the vehicle of his diary to enable him to remain committed to the pathway of death on behalf of the Emperor

Japan's Imperial Army Edward J. Drea, 2009 The first comprehensive English language history of the Japanese imperial army based largely on Japanese language sources Traces the origins evolution and impact of the army as an engine of Japan's regional and global ambitions and as a catalyst for the militarization of its homeland

Japanese American World War II Evacuation Oral History Project: Internees Arthur A. Hansen, 1991 The first of five volumes collecting 20 years of research by the California State University Fullerton Oral History Program Part one comprises in depth interviews with persons of Japanese ancestry both resident aliens Issei and US citizens Nisei interned in centers operated by the Army the Department of Justice the Immigration and Naturalization Service the Wartime Civil Control Administration and the War Relocation Authority Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Unfought War Alvin D. Coox, 1992-03-23 Alvin D Coox analyzes the period 1941-42 in Japan using oral history to add an extra dimension to developments in that period

Becoming a Japanese War Bride Kristopher Shirey, 2020-03-14 Told through the eyes of Fumiko this oral history depicts her journey from Japan to the United States and how she became a Japanese War Bride This book documents a piece of my family's history that would never have been known if my grandma chose not to share it and I never documented it

The Sino-Japanese War and Youth Literature Minjie Chen, 2016-01-22 The Sino Japanese War 1937-1945 was fought in the Asia Pacific theatre between Imperial Japan and China with the United States as the latter's major military ally An important line of investigation remains questioning how the history of this war has been passed on to post war generations consciousness and how information sources particularly those exposed to young people in their formative years shape their knowledge and bias of the conflict as well as World War II more generally This book is the first to focus on how the Sino Japanese War has been represented in non English and English sources for children and young adults As a cross cultural study and an interdisciplinary endeavour it not only examines youth orientated publications in China and the United States but also draws upon popular culture novelists memoirs and family oral narratives to make comparisons between fiction and history Chinese and American sources and published materials and private memories of the war Through quantitative narrative analysis literary and visual analysis and socio political critique it shows the dominant pattern of war stories traces chronological changes over the seven decades from 1937 to 2007 and teases out the ways in which the history of the Sino Japanese War has been constructed censored and utilized to serve shifting agendas Providing a much needed examination of public memory literary representation and popular imagination of the Sino Japanese War this book will have huge interdisciplinary appeal particularly for students and scholars of Asian history literature society and education

MacArthur's Jungle War Stephen R. Taaffe, 1998 His book tells not only how victory was gained through a combination of technology tactics and army navy cooperation but also how the New Guinea campaign exemplified the strategic differences that plagued the Pacific War since many high ranking officers considered it a diversionary tactic rather than a key offensive Japanese American World War II Evacuation Oral History Project: Administrators Arthur A. Hansen,1991

The Japanese American Project of the Oral History Program at Calif State U Fullerton was launched in 1972 and the collection of interviews connected with the evacuation is to appear in five volumes focusing on the internees analysts resisters guards and townspeople and presented here administrators Transcriptions of interviews with seven administrators are briefly introduced and set in context Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR MacArthur's Airman Thomas E. Griffith,1998 Thomas Griffith offers a critical assessment of George C Kenney s numerous contributions to MacArthur s war efforts He depicts Kenney as a staunch proponent of airpower s ability to shape the outcome of military engagement and a commander who shared MacArthur s strategic vision Barbed Voices Arthur A. Hansen,2018-11-05
Barbed Voices is an engaging anthology of the most significant published articles written by the well known and highly respected historian of Japanese American history Arthur Hansen updated and annotated for contemporary context Featuring selected inmates and camp groups who spearheaded resistance movements in the ten War Relocation Authority administered compounds in the United States during World War II Hansen s writing provides a basis for understanding why when where and how some of the 120 000 incarcerated Japanese Americans opposed the threats to themselves their families their reference groups and their racial ethnic community What historically was benignly termed the Japanese American Evacuation was in fact a social disaster which unlike a natural disaster is man made Examining the emotional implications of targeted systemic incarceration Hansen highlights the psychological traumas that transformed Japanese American identity and culture for generations after the war While many accounts of Japanese American incarceration rely heavily on government documents and analytic texts Hansen s focus on first person Nikkei testimonies gathered through powerful oral history interviews gives expression to the resistance to this social disaster Analyzing the evolving historical memory of the effects of wartime incarceration Barbed Voices presents a new scholarly framework of enduring value It will be of interest to students and scholars of oral history US history public history and ethnic studies as well as the general public interested in the WWII experience and civil rights The Japanese War 1941-1945 Jeremy Black,2007 Seeing History: Public History in China LI Na,2023-11-06
When public history was imported from the United States to China around the turn of the twenty first century it was introduced as a sub field within history and has developed along that path ever since Professional historians in China even some forward looking ones see public history as merely presenting a change in the patterns of participation in history making This book offers a sharply different view It contends essentially that public history represents more than a research domain within history or within any existing discipline nor does it fit into any established narratives but rather a fundamental change of the entire process of history making in China In this process the public is prosuming history Public history makes obsolete the old structure for building and acquiring historical knowledge it challenges the old assumptions supersedes the rigid academic hierarchy and stirs the imaginations of the multitudes With an assemblage of case studies this work makes a case for a system view of public history making or public history ing and launches a concept complex public history i e public history ing as complex adaptive systems Japanese American Oral History Guide ,1991

Official History of the Russian-Japanese War James Martin Miller,1904 The Pacific War Remembered John T. MASON,2013-07-31 In this remarkable oral history collection thirty three participants in the turbulent epic that began with the day of infamy at Pearl Harbor and ended with the signing of the surrender documents in Tokyo Harbor tell their stories Their remembrances of heartbreak frustration heroism hope and triumph were collected over a period of twenty five years by John T Mason Their recollections reveal perspectives and facts not included in traditional works of history Each selection introduced with a preface that places it in the context of the Pacific War takes the reader behind the scenes to present the personal untold stories of naval history Included are Admiral William S Sullivan s account of the problems involved in clearing Manila Harbor of some five hundred wrecked vessels left by the departing Japanese and Admiral Thomas C Kinkaid s description of the communications breakdown at the Battle of Leyte Gulf There are also the very personal recollections of humor and horror told by the unknown actors in the war the hospital corpsman the coxswain and the machinist s mate Originally published in 1986 this volume is an unusual and lasting tribute to the ingenuity and teamwork demonstrated by America s forces in the Pacific as well as a celebration of the human spirit
