Kenya Universities 2015 2016 Intake Points:

Equality in Kenya's 2010 Constitution Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25 This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality It illuminates the many ways in which diverse equality guarantees clash or are interrelated It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya Taking a comparative approach the book considers how other jurisdictions including the United States United Kingdom Canada South Africa India and Botswana have approached the conceptualisation interpretation and application of various equality concepts The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya's 2010 Constitution expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non discrimination affirmative action accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality the interrelation between socio economic rights and status based equality The Elusive African Renaissance George Klay Kieh, Jr., 2018-09-12 Africa faces several major development challenges that have adversely affected the political and material well being of the majority of the people living there This collection of new essays rigorously analyzes those frontier development issues including democracy leadership the economy poverty alleviation through microfinance schemes food security education health and political instability and offers prescriptions that differ from the dominant neoliberal solutions Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa's fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women's interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa Biodiversity, Food and Nutrition Danny Hunter, Teresa Borelli, Eliot Gee, 2020-04-29 This book examines the challenges and impacts of poor diets and nutrition from current food systems and the potential contribution of biodiversity and ecosystem services in addressing these problems There is a strong need for a multi level cross sectoral approach that connects food biodiversity conservation and sustainable use to address critical problems in our current food systems including malnutrition Building on research from the Biodiversity for Food and Nutrition Project BFN which aims to better link biodiversity diets and nutrition the book presents a multi country cross sectoral analysis of initiatives that have promoted local food biodiversity in four countries Brazil Kenya

Turkey and Sri Lanka This book offers a comprehensive summary of the BFN Project results in each of the four countries along with lessons learned and how this work could be upscaled or applied in other regions It argues that the strategic promotion and use of food biodiversity is critical in uniting attempts to address conservation nutrition and livelihood concerns The book is structured around chapters and case studies encompassing the BFN Project with specific experiences related by partners who played key roles in the work being done in each country By offering a comparative view capable of furthering dialogue between the respective countries it is also meant to connect the individual cases for a greater than the sum of its parts effect This means consideration of how localized activities can be adapted to more countries and regions Therefore the book addresses global issues with a foot planted firmly in the grounded case study locations This book will be of great interest to policymakers practitioners and NGOs working on food and nutrition as well as students and scholars of agriculture food systems and sustainable development

HIV/AIDS Victor R Preedy, Ronald Ross Watson, 2017-11-21 HIV/AIDS Oxidative Stress and Dietary Antioxidants provides comprehensive coverage of oxidative stress in HIV AIDS focusing on both the pathological process around molecular and cellular metabolism and the complications that can arise due to nutritional imbalance It provides a pathway for researchers and clinicians to gain an in depth understanding of the role of oxidative stress bridging the transdisciplinary divide between virologists immunologists physicians clinical workers food scientists and nutritionists to advance medical sciences and enable preventative treatment strategies Very often oxidative stress is a feature of HIV AIDs or of the treatment of HIV AIDs While immunologists physicians and clinical workers understand the processes in HIV AIDs they may be less conversant in the science of nutrition and dietetics Similarly nutritionists and dietitians may be less conversant with the detailed clinical background and science of HIV AIDs Offers holistic coverage of HIV AIDS and the role of oxidative stress Written by a leading team of international experts Provides a roadmap to therapeutic potential and crosses the trans tissue or transdisciplinary divides

Queer and Trans African Mobilities B Camminga, John Marnell, 2022-06-16 Winner ASR Best Africa Focused Edited Collection by the African Studies Review Recent years have seen increased scholarly and media interest in the cross border movements of LGBT persons particularly those seeking protection in the Global North While this has helped focus attention on the plight of individuals fleeing homophobic or transphobic persecution it has also reinvigorated racist tropes about the Global South In the case of Africa the expansion of anti LGBT laws and the prevalence of hetero patriarchal discourses are regularly cited as evidence of an inescapable savagery The figure of the LGBT refugee often portrayed as helplessly awaiting rescue reinforces colonial notions about the continent and its peoples Queer and Trans African Mobilities draws on diverse case studies from the length and breadth of Africa offering the first in depth investigation of LGBT migration on and from the continent The collection provides new insights into the drivers and impacts of displacement linked to sexual orientation or gender identity and challenges notions about why LGBT Africans move where they are going and what they experience along the way
