The Making of Capitalism in France Xavier Lafrance, 2019-02-25 Very few authors have addressed the origins of capitalism in France as the emergence of a distinct form of historical society premised on a new configuration of social power rather than as an extension of commercial activities liberated from feudal obstacles Xavier Lafrance offers the first thorough historical analysis of the origins of capitalist social property relations in France from a political Marxist or Capital centric Marxist perspective Putting emphasis on the role of the state The Making of Capitalism in France shows how the capitalist system was first imported into this country in an industrial form and considerably later than is usually assumed This work demonstrates that the French Revolution was not capitalist and in fact consolidated customary regulations that formed the bedrock of the formation of the working class

Non-market Entrepreneurship G. E. Mind vs. Money Alan Kahan, 2017-07-12 For the past 150 years Western intellectuals have trumpeted contempt for capitalism and capitalists They have written novels plays and manifestos to demonstrate the evils of the economic system in which they live Dislike and contempt for the bourgeoisie the middle classes industry and commerce have been a prominent trait of leading Western writers and artists Mind vs Money is an analytical history of how and why so many intellectuals have opposed capitalism It is also an argument for how this opposition can be tempered Historically intellectuals have expressed their rejection of capitalism through many different movements including nationalism anti Semitism socialism fascism communism and the 1960s counterculture Hostility to capitalism takes new forms today The anti globalization Green communitarian and New Age movements are all examples Intellectuals give such movements the legitimacy and leadership they would otherwise lack What unites radical intellectuals of the nineteenth century communists and fascists of the twentieth and anti globalization protestors of the twenty first along with many other intellectuals not associated with these movements is their rejection of capitalism Kahan argues that intellectuals are a permanently alienated elite in capitalist societies In myriad forms and on many fronts the battle between Mind and Money continues today Anti Americanism is one of them Americans like to see their country as a beacon of freedom and prosperity But in the eyes of many European and American intellectuals when America is identified with capitalism it is transformed from moral beacon into the Great Satan This is just one of the issues Mind vs Money explores The conflict between Mind and Money is the great unresolved conflict of modern society To end it we must first understand it

America, The Dream Kenneth S. Brown, 2021-07-28 This book was not written for everyone but for those that can accept the truth about what life in America has been like The masses of the people in this country were led to believe in a dream the American dream The oppression by political leaders and exploitation by big businesses has created a life where the dream is difficult to achieve The common people were told that education will be the key to economic success that believing in God and attending church will be the producer of blessings in the toughest moments in life The American people were promised in this dream that every American will be treated justly in the court of law that every American will be given the opportunity to work and be paid a fair wage that every American will have the right to be educated properly and adequately that every American will be given the opportunity to achieve and live the American dream But just as it was written in theory or as an idea it remains an idea for the working class poor however it has become a reality for just a few while nearly the entire population of the minimum wage workers is living an impoverish lifestyle For those who can accept and handle the truth this book is written for people like you and me Entrepreneurship, Growth and Public Policy Zoltán J.
