Compassion, Literature and Animal Welfare Michael J. Gilmour, 2020-10-27 This book examines animal welfare themes in fiction and considers how authors of the last two centuries undermine dominative attitudes toward the nonhuman. Appearing alongside the emerging humane movements of the nineteenth century and beyond is a kind of storytelling sympathetic to protectionist efforts well described as a literature of protest. Compassion inclined tales like the Dolittle adventures by Hugh Lofting educate readers on a wide range of ethical questions, empathize with the vulnerable and envision peaceful coexistence with other species. Memorable characters like Black Beauty and Beautiful Joe, Ivan the gorilla and Louis the trumpeter swan, Hazel and Cheeta, Mr Bultitude and Doctor Rat do not merely amuse. They are voices from the margins who speak with moral urgency to those with ears to hear. This broad survey of ethical themes in animal fiction highlights the unique contributions creative writers make toward animal welfare efforts. A well known early childhood author joins with a literacy expert to offer a brand new approach to early literacy in preschool leading into kindergarten reading. New research on how literacy emerges is put to use in chapters on setting up a literacy friendly learning environment, music and art as natural languages, strengthening finger muscles for writing through 3 dimensional art, cooking and woodworking, developing visual representational skills à la Reggio Emilia, developing the important sense of story sequence through role plays, story reenactments and flannel board stories. Teachers are asked to make a paradigm shift in regard to their opinion of children's books as mere sources of entertainment. This text uses picture books as keys to unlocking an entire curriculum of literacy activities with cultural book characters like real children leading preschool and kindergarten listeners into learning centers filled with exciting literacy activities for them to pursue on their own. Teacher oriented are discussed along with suggestions on how and when to use each. A discussion of the new early childhood curriculum standards suggests ways to incorporate them in early childhood classrooms. Play Behaviors in Nonhandicapped and Handicapped Preschool-aged Children J.
