Whitmore,2016-09-01 At a time when literacy has become more of a political issue than a research or pedagogical one this volume refocuses attention on work with young children that places them at the center of their literacy worlds Drawing on robust and growing knowledge which is often marginalized because of political and legislative forces it explores young children s literacies as inclusive redefined and broadened encompassing technologies the arts multiple modalities and teaching and learning for democracy cultural sustainability and social justice Highlighted themes include children s rights to grow through playful engagements with multiple literacies to interrogate their worlds adults who expand and inspire children s consciousness and awareness of others and the world around them the centrality of meaning making in all aspects of language and literacy development a deep respect for diversities including languages cultures sexual orientation socioeconomic status and more and an expansive understanding of the nature of texts

Connecticut School Document Connecticut school document,1895 Report of the Board of Education of the State of Connecticut Submitted to the Governor ... Connecticut. State Board of Education,1895 Building Apartheid Nicholas Coetzer,2016-04-22 Through a specific architectural lens this book exposes the role the British Empire played in the development of apartheid Through reference to previously unexamined archival material the book uncovers a myriad of mechanisms through which Empire laid the foundations onto which the edifice of apartheid was built It unearths the significant role British architects and British architectural ideas played in facilitating white dominance and racial segregation in pre apartheid Cape Town To achieve this the book follows the progenitor of the Garden City Movement Ebenezer Howard in its tripartite structure of Country Town Suburb acknowledging the Garden City Movement s dominance at the Cape at the time This tripartite structure also provides a significant match to postcolonial schemas of Self Other Same which underpin the three parts to the book Much is owed to Edward Said s discourse analytical approach in Orientalism and the work of Homi Bhabha in the definition and interpretation of archival material This material ranges across written and visual representations in journals and newspapers through exhibitions and events to legislative acts as well as the physicality of the various architectural objects studied The book concludes by drawing attention to the ideological potency of architecture which tends to be veiled more so through its ubiquitous presence and in doing so it presents not only a story peculiar to

Imperial Cape Town but one inherent to architecture more broadly The concluding chapter also provides a timely mirror for the machinations currently at play in establishing a post apartheid architecture and urbanity in the new South Africa
