1940-1944 Julian Jackson, 2003-03-05 The French call them the Dark Years This definitive new history of Occupied France explores the myths and realities of four of the most divisive years in French history Taking in ordinary people's experiences of defeat collaboration resistance and liberation it uncovers the conflicting memories of occupation which ensure that even today France continues to debate the legacy of the Vichy years La fille du puisatier, 1943 Music in Contemporary French Cinema Phil Powrie, 2017-06-29 This book explores composed scores and pre-existing music in French cinema from 1985 to 2015 so as to identify critical musical moments It shows how heritage films construct space through music generating what Powrie calls third space music while also working to contain the strong women characters found in French heritage films through the use of leitmotifs and musical cues He analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender Building on aspects of musical performance and in particular the use of songs performed in films Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a crystal song Applying Roland Barthes's concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze's concept of the crystal image Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past present and future Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Revolution in Paradise Yehuda Moraly,2019-11-01 The era of the German Occupation of France constituted surprisingly a golden age for the arts literature theater popular music and cinema These works of art seem to be devoid of political impact The widespread trend of unrealistic and fantastic art during this period is explained by some scholars as the artists escape from the omnipotent eye of German censorship The purpose of the book is to show that contrary to the accepted view some of these films were intimately linked to the political situation They convey the demonization of characters that while not specifically presented as Jews nevertheless manifested anti Semitic stereotypes of the Jew as ugly rootless low hypocritical immoral cruel and power hungry All five movies analysed Les Inconnus dans la maison dir Henri Decoin 1942 Les Visiteurs du Soir dir Marcel Carne 1942 L Eternel retour dir Jean Delannoy 1943 Les Enfants du Paradis dir Marcel Carne 1943 present characters not identified as Jews but who exhibit negative Jewish traits in contrast to the aristocratic characters whom they aspire to emulate They demonstrate implicitly central themes of explicit anti Semitic propaganda Yehuda Moraly addresses two current major misconceptions regarding the Cinema of Occupied France 1 that the accepted view that there were almost no explicitly Jewish characters in the cinema of that time and place is patently incorrect and 2 that the feature films of Occupied France were not as it is commonly thought free of the propaganda messages that permeated the press the radio and documentary films Analysis of these films brings out the contradictory nature of European anti Semitism On one hand the Jew is the anti Christ throttling the world with disgusting materialism while on the other hand he is representative of an ancestral stifling morality which it is time to abolish
