

The background of the entire page is a detailed illustration of a traditional thatched roof, likely from an Amazonian region. The thatch is made of dried palm fronds or similar natural materials, arranged in a dense, layered pattern. The illustration is rendered in a style that uses a range of brown and tan colors, giving it a textured, almost painterly appearance. The roof curves across the frame from the upper left towards the lower right, creating a sense of depth and perspective.
