Transgression in the Architectures of After-Modernity Carmen Popescu, 2025-09-03 In architecture transgressive acts have always been a reality in spite of rules and canons that have defined the discipline and its extended field However in recent decades their frequency and radicality have surged from rather random marginal and or idiosyncratic phenomena While their sudden rise can be explained as a reaction to the compulsive normativity of modernity the deeper roots are to be sought elsewhere the recent waves of transgressiveness are intimately linked to the hypercrisis affecting our world today spanning ecological political economic and social dimensions and catalysing fundamental mutations and disorders Some of these transgressive acts are motivated by a desire to dismantle a malfunctioning system but more often than not breaking the rules has become an inherent survival tactic amid urgent social challenges In our era of after modernity transgression emerges not just as an act of defiance but reveals a new paradigm at work a critical framework for reimagining the built environment challenging established orders and advocating for the rights of marginalised populations Drawing on a rich array of theoretical insights and empirical case studies from multiple countries this volume provides a unique forward looking perspective on transgressive acts in architecture as responses to today's ecological political economic and social crises

The Most Beautiful Job in the World Giulia Mensitieri, 2020-07-09 A powerful exposé of Parisian haute couture Book of the Week Times Higher Education Fashion is one of the most powerful industries in the world accounting for 6% of global consumption and growing steadily Since the 1980s and the birth of the neoliberal economy it has emerged as the glittering face of capitalism bringing together prestige power and beauty and occupying a central place in media and consumer fantasies Yet the fashion industry which claims to offer highly desirable job opportunities relies significantly on job instability not just in outsourced garment production but at the very heart of its creative production of luxury Based on an in depth investigation involving stylists models designers hairdressers make up artists photographers and interns anthropologist Giulia Mensitieri goes behind fashion's glamorous facade to explore the lived realities of working in the industry. This challenging book lays bare the working conditions of the most beautiful job in the world showing that exploitation isn't confined to sweatshops abroad or sexual harassment of models but exists at the very heart of the powerful symbolic and economic centre of fashion.

The Daily Lives of Muslims Nilüfer Göle, 2017-04-15 For many in the West Islam has become a byword for terrorism. From 9/11 to the Paris attacks our headlines are dominated by images of violence and extremism. Now as the Western world struggles to cope with the refugee crisis there is a growing obsession with the issue of Muslim integration. Those Muslims who fail to assimilate are branded the enemy within with their communities said to provide a fertile breeding ground for jihadists. Such narratives though fail to take into account the actual lives of most Muslims living in the West fixating instead on a minority of violent extremists. In The Daily Lives of Muslims Nilüfer Göle provides an urgently needed corrective to this distorted image of Islam. Engaging with Muslim communities in twenty-one cities across Europe where controversies over integration have arisen from the banning of the veil in France to debates surrounding sharia law in the UK the book brings the voices of this neglected majority into the debate. In doing so Göle uncovers a sincere desire among many Muslims to participate in the public sphere a desire which is too often stifled by Western insecurity and attempts to suppress the outward signs of religious difference.

Reconfiguring the Postcolonial City, 2024-12-09 Global South cities are magnets of immigration flows. They are vivid crucibles of human diversity cultural interactions but also of political tensions and social violence. From Kolkata to Bogota from Harare to Fort de France from Bamako to Cape Town this book offers a unique set of studies on cities where multifarious diaspora flows converge. Building on the concept of the ecotone i.e. a contact zone between populations of different backgrounds it elicits a multidisciplinary dialogue between social science and humanities scholars exploring the articulation between the postcolonial and the neoliberal city. Following Ananya Roy's proposition of a worlding the South Roy 2014 this book contributes to forging a situated world view rooted in the experience and the imaginary of Southern cities. La condition cosmopolite Michel Agier, 2013 La mondialisation libère les uns et oppresse les autres. Et dans cette partition du monde chacun est renvoyé une identité prétendument essentielle et vraie. D'où un véritable piège identitaire : négation de l'autre et de sa subjectivité parfois justifié par l'anthropologie l'opposé de sa vocation humaniste et critique. Face à ce défi le regard contemporain sur le monde doit être repensé en dépassant le relativisme culturel et ses ontologies identitaires. Dans ce livre Michel Agier prend une position résolument décentrée invitant le lecteur à reconsidérer les sens et les usages de la frontière lieu de passage instable et sans cesse négociée elle nous fait humains en instituant la place et l'existence sociale de chacun tout en reconnaissant celles des autres. Le mur est
