Post-migratory Cultures in Postcolonial France Kathryn A. Kleppinger, Laura Reeck, 2018 Post Migratory Cultures in Postcolonial France offers a critical assessment of the ways in which French writers filmmakers musicians and other artists descended from immigrants from former colonial territories bring their specificity to bear on the bounds and applicability of French republicanism Frenchness and national identity and contemporary cultural production in France In mobilizing a range of approaches and methodologies pertinent to their specialist fields of inquiry contributors to this volume share in the common objective of elucidating the cultural productions of what we are calling post migratory second and third generation postcolonial minorities The volume provides a lens through which to query the dimensions of postcoloniality and transnationalism in relation to post migratory postcolonial minorities in France and identifies points of convergence and conversation among them in the range of their cultural production The cultural practitioners considered query traditional French high culture and its pathways and institutions some emerge as autodidacts introducing new forms of authorship and activism they inflect French cultural production with different accents some experimental and even avant garde in nature As the volume contributors show though post migratory postcolonial minorities sometimes express dis settlement they also provide an incisive view of social identities in France today and their own compelling visions for the future Afropean Female Selves Christopher Hogarth, 2022-10-31 Afropean Female Selves Migration and Language in the Life Writing of Fatou Diome and Igiaba Scego examines the corpus of writing of two contemporary female authors Both writers are of African descent live in Europe and write about lives across Europe and Africa in different languages French and Italian Their work involves episodes from their lived experience and complicates Western understandings of life writing and autobiography As Hogarth shows in this study the works of Diome and Scego encapsulate the new and complex identities of contemporary Afropeans As an identity coined and used frequently by prominent authors and critics across Europe Africa and North America the notion of Afropean is at the cutting edge of cultural analyses today Yet each writer occupies unique and different positions within this debated category While Scego is a post migratory subject in postcolonial Europe Diome is an African writer who has migrated to Europe in her adult life This book examines the different trajectories and packaging of these two specific postcolonial writers in the Francophone and Italophone contexts pointing out how and where each author practices life writing strategies and scrutinizing the trend that emphasizes the life writing autofictional or autoethnographic strategies of African diasporic writers Afropean Female Selves offers a comparative study across two languages of a notion that has so far been explored mainly in English It explores the contours of this new discursive category and positions it in regard to other notions of Afrodiasporic identity such as Afropolitan and Afro European Catalogue of the Books, Manuscripts, Maps and Drawings in the British Museum (Natural History) ... British Museum (Natural History). Library, 1922 To Be Free and French Lorelle Semley, 2017-07-10 The Haitian Revolution may have galvanized subjects of French empire in the Americas and Africa struggling to define freedom and Frenchness for themselves but Lorelle Semley reveals that this event was just one moment in a longer struggle of women and men of color for rights under the French colonial regime Through political activism ranging from armed struggle to literary expression these colonial subjects challenged and exploited promises in French Republican rhetoric that should have contradicted the continued use of slavery in the Americas and the introduction of exploitative labor in the colonization of Africa They defined an alternative French citizenship which recognized difference particularly race as part of a universal French identity Spanning Atlantic port cities in Haiti Senegal Martinique Benin and France this book is a major contribution to scholarship on citizenship race empire and gender and it sheds new light on debates around human rights and immigration in contemporary France Black Studies in Europe Nicole Grégoire, Sarah Fila-Bakabadio, Jacinthe Mazzocchetti, 2025-08-15 Reflecting on contemporary epistemologies of European Blackness Long absent from research in the humanities and social sciences Black people in continental Europe have become the focus of a growing body of literature in the past two decades that addresses their unique history and social positioning Black Studies in Europe An Anthology of Soil and Seeds brings together essays and case studies by a collective of scholars writers and activists to offer a critical overview of the emerging field of Black European studies and a vital reflection on contemporary epistemologies of European Blackness This collection addresses key questions What is Blackness from a European standpoint Which epistemologies and theoretical tools have been used to offer a better understanding of Black experiences in Europe How is this knowledge being produced and by whom Can we define a common European conceptual framework for Black studies Related to this work is an even more urgent enterprise forging an epistemological distinction between the study of Black people and Black studies as an emancipatory project Les Hommes de Demain; Heptalogie Marcel Barriere, 1909 The Catholic literary circular , Charlin's French course.
