Le Grand Troupeau ; Roman Jean Giono, 1931 Le Grand Troupeau, 1951 Sites of Memory, Sites of Mourning Jay Winter, 2014-05-15 Jay Winter's powerful study of the collective remembrance of the Great War offers a major reassessment of one of the critical episodes in the cultural history of the twentieth century Dr Winter looks anew at the culture of commemoration and the ways in which communities endeavoured to find collective solace after 1918 Taking issue with the prevailing modernist interpretation of the European reaction to the appalling events of 1914-18 Dr Winter instead argues that what characterised that reaction was rather the attempt to interpret the Great War within traditional frames of reference Tensions arose inevitably Sites of Memory Sites of Mourning is a profound and moving book of seminal importance for the attempt to understand the course of European history during the first half of the twentieth century , Fiche de Lecture, 2011 Tout ce qu'il faut savoir sur Le Grand troupeau de Jean Giono Retrouvez l'essentiel de l'œuvre dans une fiche de lecture complète et détaillée avec un résumé une étude des personnages des clés de lecture et des pistes de réflexion Rédigée de manière claire et accessible la fiche de lecture propose d'abord un résumé général du roman puis s'intéresse aux personnages de Joseph de Julia d'Olivier de Madeleine et du berger Thomas On aborde ensuite la construction du roman qui se divise en trois parties alternant elles-mêmes divers récits puis la correspondance entre l'humanité et l'animalité avant de commenter la portée de l'œuvre qui constitue la fois un réquisitoire contre la guerre et un vibrant hymne à la vie Enfin les pistes de réflexion sous forme de questions vous permettront d'aller plus loin dans votre étude Une analyse littéraire de référence pour mieux lire et comprendre le livre Degeneration Max Simon Nordau, 1895 The Unspeakable Amy L. Hubbell, Névine El Nossery, 2013-10-03 The Unspeakable Representations of Trauma in Francophone Literature and Art is situated at the crossroads of language culture and genre it contends that suffering transcends time space and cultural specificity Even when extreme trauma is silenced it often still emerges in surprising and painful ways This volume draws together examples from throughout the Francophone world including countries such as Algeria Morocco Lebanon Rwanda Cameroon Congo Côte d'Ivoire Haiti New Caledonia Quebec and France and across genres such as autobiography poetry theater film fiction and visual art to provide a cohesive analysis of the representation of trauma In addition to the survivors expression of trauma the witnesses and receivers are also taken into account By gathering studies that explore diverse bodily and psychological traumas through tropes such as repetition silence and working through it tackles ethical responsibility and interrogates how expressive forms evoke a terrible reality through the use of imagination The aim of this volume is not to question if suffering is representable but rather to examine to what extent art surpasses its own limitations and goes straight to its essence The Unspeakable hopes to provide models for the cultural translation of trauma because when represented and released from silence and isolation trauma can give way to the arduous process of healing     The Cult of Beauty in Charles Baudelaire Solomon Alhadeff Rhodes,1929     Dictionnaire Critique Et Documentaire Des Peintres, Sculpteurs, Dessinateurs & Graveurs de Tous Les Temps Et de Tous Les Pays: D-K Emmanuel Bénézit,1924     The Decroly Class Amélie Hamaïde,1924     A Century of Artists William Ernest Henley,1889     The Influence of Baudelaire in France and England Gladys Turquet-Milnes,1913     A Time of Transition in the French Novel Christopher Shorley,2006 The years around 1930 are marked by turning points in most areas of French life and the fiction of the time is a privileged means of understanding those changes This book traces vital transitions in French politics society and culture the focus then moves to the novel a genre uniquely equipped to reflect topical shifts and breakthroughs     The Platonism of Joachim Du Bellay Robert Valentine Merrill,1925     Bulletin of Agricultural Intelligence and Plant Diseases of the International Institute of Agriculture ,1911     Dictionnaire Anglais-français Jules Guiraud,1926     Mentally Defective Children Alfred Binet,Théodore Simon,1914     Dying for France Ian Germani,2023-03-15 In the past century Western attitudes toward the soldier s death have undergone a remarkable transformation Widely accepted at the time of the First World War when nearly ten million soldiers died in uniform as a redemptive sacrifice on behalf of the nation the soldier s death is increasingly regarded as an unacceptable tragedy In Dying for France Ian Germani considers this transformation in the context of the history of France over the expanse of five centuries from the Renaissance to the present Blending military history with the history of culture and mentalities Germani explores key episodes in the history of France s wars to show how patriotic models of the soldier s death eclipsed those inspired by the aristocratic code of honour before themselves giving way to disillusioned representations First hand testimony of soldiers surgeons and others provides the basis for vivid descriptions of how a soldier encountered death on and away from the battlefield Works of art and print culture are used to analyze how soldiers deaths were represented to the public and to discern how popular attitudes evolved over time Encompassing France s major external conflicts and its civil wars this study also considers the experiences of soldiers recruited from the French colonial empire Relating changes in the perception of military mortality to broader changes in society s relationship with death Dying for France highlights essential turning points in the rise and fall of the patriotic ideal of the soldier s death     Journal de l'agriculture de la ferme et des maisons de campagnes de la zootechnie, de la viticulture, de l'horticulture, de l'économie rurale et des intérêts de la propriété ,1881
