Costumes, oeuvres d'art et ustensiles depuis le commencement du moyen âge jusqu'à la fin du dix-huitième siècle Jakob Heinrich von Hefner-Altenneck, 1887      Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ... George Peabody Library, 1889      Cinema Arthuriana Kevin J. Harty, 2015-05-07 The legends of King Arthur have not only endured for centuries but also flourished in constant retellings and new stories built around the central themes With the coming of motion pictures Arthur was destined to hit the screen This edition of Cinema Arthuriana revised in 2002 presents 20 essays on the topic of the recurring presence of the legend in film and television from 1904 to 2001 They cover such films as Excalibur 1981 and Monty Python and the Holy Grail 1975 television productions such as The Mists of Avalon 2001 and French and German films about the quest for the Holy Grail and the other adventures of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table      Three Bernards Sent South to Govern II Donald C. Jackman, 2015-02-07 Part Two presents the train of argument leading to the establishment of precise genealogical connections between the several Bernards The reliable affiliation of Count Bernard I of Auvergne as brother of Count Isembard of Autun supports a cogent case for the existence of a fundamental law of hereditary succession in French counties of the ninth century Further material pertaining directly to comital succession in the context of the Bernards then follows      The Waxing of the Middle Ages Charles-Louis Morand-Métivier, Tracy Adams, 2023-04-14 Johan Huizinga's much loved and much contested Autumn of the Middle Ages first published in 1919 encouraged an image of the Late French Middle Ages as a flamboyant but empty period of decline and nostalgia Many studies particularly literary studies have challenged Huizinga's perceptions of individual works or genres Still the vision of the Late French and Burgundian Middle Ages as a sad transitional phase between the High Middle Ages and the Renaissance persists Yet a series of exceptionally significant cultural developments mark the period The Waxing of the Middle Ages sets out to provide a rich complex and diverse study of these developments and to reassert that late medieval France is crucial in its own right The collection argues for an approach that views the late medieval period not as an afterthought or a blind spot but as a period that is key in understanding the fluidity of time traditions culture and history Each essay explores some cultural form to borrow Huizinga's expression to expose the false divide that has dominated modern scholarship      La Satire en France Au Moyen-âge Charles Lenient, 1893      Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore N. H. Morison, 1889      The Medieval Chronicle 11, 2018-03-20 Alongside annals chronicles were the main genre of historical writing in the Middle Ages Their significance as sources for the study of medieval history and culture is today widely recognised not only by historians but also by students of medieval literature and linguistics and by art historians The series The Medieval Chronicle aims to provide a representative survey of the on going research in the field of chronicle studies illustrated by examples from specific chronicles from a wide variety of countries periods and cultural backgrounds There are several reasons why the chronicle is particularly suited as the topic of a yearbook In the first place there is its ubiquity all over Europe and throughout the Middle Ages chronicles were written both in Latin and in the vernacular and not only in Europe but also in the countries neighbouring on it like those of the Arabic world Secondly all chronicles raise such questions as by whom for whom or for what purpose were they written how do they reconstruct the past what determined the choice of verse or prose or what kind of literary influences are discernable in them Finally many chronicles have been beautifully illuminated and the relation between text and image leads to a wholly different set of questions The Medieval Chronicle is published in cooperation with the Medieval Chronicle Society medievalchronicle.org Le Moyen Age Robert Bossuat,1931 The French Romantics' Knowledge of English Literature (1820-1848) Eric Partridge,1924 Medieval Hellenism Louise Ropes Loomis,1906 *Dictionnaire D'archéologie Chrétienne Et de Liturgie, Publié Par Le R. Department of Printed Books,1903 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum,1892 Remaking the Middle Ages Andrew B.R. Elliott,2014-01-10 Proposing a fresh theoretical approach to the study of cinematic portrayals of the Middle Ages this book uses both semiotics and historiography to demonstrate how contemporary filmmakers have attempted to recreate the past in a way that while largely imagined is also logical meaningful and as truthful as possible Carrying out this critical approach the author analyzes a wide range of films depicting the Middle Ages arguing that most of these films either reflect the past through a series of visual signs a concept he has called iconic recreation or by comparing the past to a modern equivalent called paradigmatic representation Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years ... British Museum,1902 British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1892
