Small Communities Andrew A. S. Newton, 2018 Excavation of a site on river gravels in the Cam Granta valley by Archaeological Solutions Ltd took place in advance of gravel extraction and construction of a reservoir The excavation revealed five phases of archaeological activity beginning in the Neolithic period with evidence for episodic or seasonal occupation and burial After a gap of several centuries there were three phases of Middle Iron Age to early Roman activity representing the continuous development of the same system of enclosures focussed on a central trackway Domestic occupation was also evident in the form of partial ring gullies During the Conquest period there was probably a landing site for boats operating on the former river channel evident at the site Economic activity during these phases represents a mixed surplus generating economy and it is possible that river traffic played an important role in the trade of the agricultural surplus Limited finds of later Roman artefacts indicate a continued Romano British presence in the vicinity The final phase of occupation is a small rural Anglo Saxon
