Literature Review Title: Impact of Digital Technology on Adolescent Mental Health

I. Introduction

Digital technology has become an integral part of adolescents' daily lives. The pervasive use of smartphones, social media, and other digital platforms has raised concerns about its impact on mental health. This literature review aims to synthesize current research on the relationship between digital technology use and adolescent mental health, focusing on both negative and positive effects.

II. Methodology

The literature for this review was gathered from multiple academic databases including PubMed, PsycINFO, and Google Scholar. Keywords used in the search included "adolescent mental health," "digital technology," "social media," "smartphones," "internet use," and "mental well-being." Studies selected were peer-reviewed, published within the last ten years, and focused on adolescents aged 12-18.

III. Negative Effects of Digital Technology on Mental Health

A. Increased Anxiety and Depression

Strategic Communication Research in the Age of AI Young Joon Lim, 2024-10-14 This comprehensive integrated research methods guide equips students and researchers to conduct effective studies in the evolving field of strategic communication. The book covers the entire research process from formulating research questions to analyzing data and presenting findings with a particular focus on navigating the complexities of AI and social media integration. While numbers and statistics can be daunting to students, integrating statistical methods with traditional approaches allows for more robust research projects and impactful findings. Augmenting quantitative and qualitative methods with the latest digital tools and resources. Strategic Communication Research in the Age of AI is an accessible guide to researching traditional and social media public relations, advertising, and marketing communication. Features: Comprehensive Coverage: The book addresses all essential elements of strategic communication research, including research design, methodologies, quantitative, qualitative, experimental, content analysis, data collection, and analysis, including AI tools, statistical analysis, descriptive and inferential, and ethical considerations. Focus on AI and Social Media: It emphasizes the growing role of AI and social media in communication research, providing practical guidance on leveraging these tools for research tasks like data collection, sampling, analysis, and presentation. Student Friendly Approach: The book is designed for students with clear explanations, step-by-step examples, chapter summaries, and key questions to reinforce understanding. It incorporates real-world scenarios and case studies to illustrate research concepts in action. Strong Foundation in Statistics: Dedicated chapters introduce both descriptive and inferential statistics, explaining key concepts and formulas relevant to strategic communication research. Focus on Writing and Presentation: The book provides clear guidelines for writing research papers in APA style, including structure, citation techniques, and best practices for presenting research findings. It highlights the importance of clear communication and effective presentation in the digital age. Instructor Resources: Lecture slides and test materials are available on the publisher's website.

Research Methods and Statistics Janie H. Wilson, Shauna W. Joye, 2016-07-21 This innovative text offers a completely integrated approach to teaching research methods and statistics by presenting a research question accompanied by the appropriate methods and statistical procedures needed to address it. Research questions and designs become more complex as chapters progress, building on simpler questions to reinforce student learning. Using a conversational style and research examples from published works, this comprehensive book walks readers through the entire research process and includes ample pedagogical support for SPSS, Excel, and APA style.

Engaging Undergraduates in Publishable Research: Best Practices Traci A. Giuliano, Jeanine L. M. Skorinko, Marianne Fallon, 2019-11-20 Although many articles and books have been written about conducting research with undergraduates, there is a dearth of research on the process of publishing with undergraduates. Thus, in this research topic, we assembled a collection of 43 articles from 98 researchers worldwide who are passionate about and have had success in publishing high-quality, peer-reviewed journal articles with undergraduates. The diverse articles represent a wide range of practices to help researchers publish with undergraduates including structuring the curriculum to promote undergraduate research and publication optimizing research experiences for undergraduates training students in implementing advanced techniques accessing special populations or conducting research in off campus settings addressing institutional and career challenges for faculty and increasing inclusion and diversity Each article provides a unique and diverse perspective that nevertheless resonates across contexts and situations We hope that the ideas models techniques and practices in these articles will motivate and inspire readers to begin continue or rethink how they engage undergraduates in publishable research we also hope to stimulate empirical and quantitative research on the effectiveness of these ideas models techniques and practices
