Bike Lust Barbara Joans, 2001-08-03 Bike Lust roars straight into the world of women bikers and offers us a ride In this adventure story that is also an insider's study of an American subculture Barbara Joans enters as a passenger on the back of a bike but soon learns to ride her own As an anthropologist she untangles the rules rituals and rites of passage of the biker culture As a new member of that culture she struggles to overcome fear physical weakness and a tendency to shoot her mouth off a tendency that very nearly gets her killed Bike Lust travels a landscape of contradictions Outlaws still chase freedom on the highway but so do thousands of riders of all classes races and colors Joans introduces us to the women who ride the rear the biker chick the calendar slut straddling the hot engine the back seat Betty at the latest rally or the underage groupie at the local run But she also gives us the first close look at women who ride in their own right on their own bikes as well as a new understanding of changing world of male bikers These are ordinary women's lives made extraordinary adding a dimension of courage to the sport not experienced by males risking life and limb for a glimpse of the very edge of existence This community of riders exists as a primal tribute to humanity's lust for freedom Consumers Index to Product Evaluations and Information Sources, 2004 Badges and Uniforms of the Royal Air Force Malcolm Hobart, 2000 Throughout the relatively short yet highly distinguished history of the Royal Air Force there has been a tendency for the men and women of the Service to be overshadowed by the glamour of the aircraft Nonetheless it is surprising that there has never before been a complete record of the uniforms and badges of the RAF and its predecessor the Royal Flying Corps Malcolm Hobart and Pen and Sword Books have cooperated to rectify this serious omission with this superbly colour illustrated and comprehensive collector s guide Badges of rank and trade are all depicted not only for the flying arms but for ground staff This valuable addition to our Collector series also covers the RAF Reserves and Auxiliary Service Air Training Corps and the Royal Observer Corps
