Claire Bénit-Gbaffou

Limpopo Doe June 2014:

Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities Claire Bénit-Gbaffou ,2024-02-27 Why are even progressive local authorities with the will to improve seldom able to change cities Why does it seem almost impossible to redress spatial inequalities deliver and maintain basic services elevate impoverished areas and protect the marginalised communities Why do municipalities in the Global South refuse to work with prevailing social informalities and resort instead to interventions that are known to displace and aggravate the very issues they aim to address Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities analyses these challenges in South African cities where the brief post apartheid moment opened a window for progressive city government and made research into state practices both possible and necessary In debate with other progressive moments in large cities in Brazil the USA and India the book interrogates City officials practices It considers the instruments they invent and negotiate to implement urban policies the agency they develop and the constraints they navigate in governing unequal cities This focus on actual officials practices is captured through first hand experience state ethnographies and engaged research These reveal day to day practice that question generalised explanations of state failure in complex urban societies as essential malevolence contextual weakness corruption and inefficiency It is hoped that opening the black box of the workings of state opens paths for the construction of progressive policies in contemporary cities The Imperative of Development Geoffrey Gertz,Homi Kharas,Johannes F. Linn,2017-09-12 The achievements and legacy of the Wolfensohn Center for Development at Brookings The Imperative of Development highlights the research and policy analysis produced by the Wolfensohn Center for Development at Brookings The Center which operated from 2006 to 2011 was the first home at Brookings for research on international development It sought to help identify effective solutions to key development challenges in order to create a more prosperous and stable world Founded by James and Elaine Wolfensohn the Center s mission was to to create knowledge that leads to action with real scaled up and lasting development impact This volume reviews the Center s achievements and lasting legacy combining highlights of its most important research with new essays that examine the context and impact of that research Six primary research streams of the Wolfensohn Center s work are highlighted in The Imperative of Development the shifting structure of the world economy in the twenty first century the challenge of scaling up the impact of development interventions the effectiveness of development assistance how to promote economic and social inclusion for Middle Eastern youth the case for investing in early child development and the need for global governance reform In each chapter a scholar associated with the particular research topic provides an overview of the issue and its broader context then describes the Center s work on the topic and the subsequent influence and impact of these efforts The Imperative of Development chronicles the growth and expansion of the first center for development research in Brookings s 100 year history and traces how the seeds of this initiative continue to bear fruit Achieving Water-Energy-Food Nexus Sustainability: A Science and Data Need or a Need for Integrated Public Policy? Richard Queering the Church Penelope Cowell Doe, 2024-05-31 Church dialogues including official reports and debates within the General Synod operate under the premise that canonical authority can shape a viable theology and coherent ecclesiastical and liturgical practices. In a groundbreaking departure from conventional methodologies, Queering the Church offers a rigorous examination of the hermeneutical frameworks that inform discussions on homosexuality within ecclesiastical governance. Drawing inspiration from Halberstam's concept of the queer art of failure, Doe advocates for a fundamental shift: a move away from entrenched institutionalized debates toward a more inclusive, deconstructive discourse. Rather than perpetuating cycles of authoritative rhetoric, Doe proposes a transformative realignment—one that challenges traditional power dynamics and fosters a more equitable theological dialogue. Provocative and timely, this book promises to illuminate new avenues toward a nuanced comprehension of church discourse.
