Linconnue De La Seine:

L'inconnue de la Seine Sacheverell Sitwell, 1950 L'Inconnue de la Seine Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2008 L'Inconnue de la Seine Guillaume Musso, 2023-11-02 Last Instructions Nir Hezroni, 2018-05-22 The sequel to Three Envelopes the critically acclaimed groundbreaking Mossad thriller by Nir Hezroni Three Envelopes was hailed as a superior thriller debut with a high level of suspense and a heart stopping conclusion Publishers Weekly starred review guaranteed to absorb and alarm its readers in equal measure Shots Mag Now in Last Instructions author Nir Hezroni continues former Israeli secret service operative Agent 10483's story using the same unique immersive narrative style Agent 10483 a psychopathic former Israeli spy is busy trying to shut down the spy organization he once worked for and plotting his revenge against the key individuals who he deems responsible for the Organization's betrayal against him Now he's traveling the world in a quest to find a hidden nuclear warhead to use against them Everyone wants to get their hands on Agent 10483 the two teams from the Organization twin assassins who are working in the service of Herr Schmidt an intelligence organization unto himself who also wants the warhead and Carmit a sub contractor for the Organization who performed transformations on him to manipulate his behavior during the course of his assassination missions abroad Offering a fascinating behind the scenes glimpse into the technology of high level intelligence operations Nir Hezroni's dark thriller is a chilling exploration of the mind of a master killer Holy Tears, Holy Blood Richard D. E. Burton, 2004 In Holy Tears Holy Blood Richard D E Burton continues his investigation of Catholic France from Revolution to Liberation From his focus in Blood in the City on public demonstrations of the cultural power of Catholicism he now turns to more private rituals those codes of conduct that shaped the interior lives of French Catholic women and determined their artistic and social presentation Here there is rather less blood and considerably more weeping Burton says In portraits of eleven women including Simone Weil and Sainte Thérèse he traces the lasting power of particular expressions of suffering and sacrifice How Burton asks does a rapidly modernizing society accommodate the cultural historical legacy of religious belief in particular the extreme conservative beliefs of ultramontane Catholicism Burton pays particular attention to the doctrine of vicarious suffering whereby an individual suffers for the redemption of others and to certain extreme forms of religious experience including stigmatization self starvation visions and apparitions L'inconnue de la Seine Guillaume Musso, 2021-09 Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen s wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature s effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre s post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature s mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano s Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen s reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre s political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK
